British Parliament—The Mary Lowell Seizure—Church Disestablishment—Bill to Depose the Mayor of Cork—Gold Medal Decreed to Dr. Hays, for Arctic Explorations, by the Paris Geographical Society—The New Spanish Minister.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, May 4.—In the House of Commons this evening Sir John Hay inquired what action the Government had taken in regard to the seizure of the brig Mary Lowell by a Spanish man-of-war in British waters. Mr. Arthur J. Otway, Under Secretary for the Foreign Department, replied that in the present imperfect state of information it was undesirable to make known the nature of the communications which had been exchanged with the Government of Spain on the subject.

Mr. Edward Sullivan, member for Mallow, will introduce a bill to prevent the Mayor of Cork from continuing to hold any office connected with the administration of justice in Ireland.

In the House of Commons, while the Irish Church bill was under consideration, Mr. Gladstone proposed that the names of Lord Monck, late Governor General of Canada, Justice James, Anthony Lawson and George Alexander Hamilton, L. L. D., be inserted in clause three as Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland, constituted under the act.

FRANCE.

PARIS, May 4.—The Geographical Society have decreed a gold medal to Dr. Hayes, of the United States, for his eminent services in the work of Arctic exploration and discovery. To-day the President of the Society, with a deputation of members, waited on General Dix, American Minister, and presented the medal, reqnesting him to transmit it to his distinguished countryman, and accompanied the presentation with an earnest expression for continued friendship between France and America. Gen. Dix, in reply, thanked the President for his friendly expression in regard to his country, and said it was pleasure for Americans to see France and the United States working together in traditional friendship for the promotion of discovery, science and general progress.

ITALY.

FLORENCE, May 4.—Both Houses of Parliament have passed a vote of confidence in the Ministry for their endeavors to restore the financial condition of the country.

State House Commission—Additional Charges of Corruption.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 4.—Gen. Jules C. Webber, late Secretary of the new State House Commissioners of Illinois, has filed with Governor Palmer additional charges and specifications against the members of that Commission. He charges the Commission with having employed John C. Cochrane as architect and superintendent of the building, knowing him to be interested in a contract of Barnard & Gowan, the firm now performing the mason work on the new State House, and a corrupt and dishonest person, as is shown by the evidence he produces. He also charges James H. Beveridge, one of the Commissioners, with being a stockholder in the Nauvoo Stone Company, and that at the letting of the contract to furnish dimension of stone for the new State House, Beveridge voted and used his influence to secure the awarding of the contract for the dimension stone to the said Nauvoo Stone Company, when their bid in the aggregate was about fifty thousand dollars more than the bid of one of the other parties. The Commissioners have been notified to appear before the Governor and answer these accusations to-morrow.

Virginia Politics.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, May 4.—Gen. Wells is out in a letter, saying he has never been satisfied that the disfranchisenal clause would accomplish the object for which it was framed; or if the majority of the people vote against it, all ought to assent to the decision. He adds: I believe, that whichever section of the Constitution the President prefers to have stricken out, he will submit separately, and the probabilities are the weight of his name will be such that the provisions so submitted will be defeated.

Railroad Matters at Cincinnati.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, May 4.—Committees from Charleston, S. C., Knoxville, Tenn., and Danville, Ky., will be here this week to confer with committees in this city with reference to the Southern Railroad. One county on its line has proposed to contribute $400,000.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—Prince Menschikoff, Admiral of the Russian Navy, died on Monday.

—Three hundred and forty-eight deaths occurred in Cincinnati during May.

—H. B. Ryan, a young lawyer, died in a coach on Monday, on the way from Covington to Sandfordville, Ky.

—The Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows of Ohio met in Cincinnati yesterday. The order was largely represented.

—The Indiana Legislature has located the Agricultural College at Tippecanoe battle ground, near Lafayette.

—Municipal elections were held on Monday in Stockton, California, and Virginia and Goldville, Nevada, at all of which the Republicans were successful.

—The Cincinnati postmaster has arranged for three daily mails from that city to New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis.

—S. A. Doran was acquitted, on Tuesday, in the Criminal Court, at Memphis, on the charge of the murder of Capt. Whitfield, some months since.

—It is reported in Washington that the Cuban revolutionists are negotiating for the purchase of the Peruvian monitors, now at St. Thomas.

—Wm C. Ross, Chief Assistant Engineer of the Baltimore Fire Department, died Tuesday morning of injuries received at a fire on the 17th of April.

—Gen. Thomas and staff leave Washington for California on Thursday. Gens. Hancock and Terry will also soon join their commands.

—The tobacco factory of E. T. Pickinton & Co., at Richmond, Va., was burned Tuesday morning. Loss $37,000; insurance $20,000.

—James Hunnewell, a leading merchant of Boston, connected with the Sandwich Islands and California trade for more than half a century, died on Monday, aged eighty years.

—The Kentucky State Temperance Convention met in Covington, Tuesday. Delegates from the Sons of Temperance and similar societies from the whole State were present. A Constitution was adopted.

—The city of St. Paul, Minn., has delivered one hundred and seventy thousand dollars worth of bonds to the Lake Superior Railroad, the balance of the three hundred thousand dollars voted having been delivered some days ago.

—In the house of one Kindt, at New York, a detective accidentally discovered concealed nuggets of gold, gold watch cases and rings of the value of five thousand dollars. On hearing of his discovery, Kindt, who had been charged with robbery, confessed his guilt.

—At Davenport, Iowa, on Monday, a young man named George Clayton, while out riding with a young lady took a pistol from his pocket, and while handling it carelessly it was discharged, the ball entering his head, inflicting a wound which caused his death in a few hours.

—At Binghamton, N. Y., on Monday night, there was a snow storm, and some snow fell yesterday, the hills being covered as in winter. Vegetation in the Susquehanna and Shenango valleys was quite forward, and it is feared damage will result from frost.

—Bent. Drake alias Benton, was arrested in Winchester county, Mass., Monday, and taken to Boston, charged with obtaining $12,000 from the First National Bank of St. Clairsville, Ohio, by forgery. He will be sent there for trial on a requisition from the Governor of the State.

—Gen. John C. Fremont goes to France on business connected with the loan which has been negotiated there for the construction of the Memphis and El Paso Pacific Railroad. It is the intention to build one hundred and fifty miles of the road this summer.

—At North Andover, Mass., Monday morning, Frank F. Cheny, aged fifteen years, of highly respectable parents, committed suicide by shooting himself. His father had required him to apologize to his school teacher for playing truant, which is supposed to have induced the rash act.

—Hon. Horace Rublee, the newly appointed Minister to Switzerland, has received his commission, and will leave his home at Madison, Wis., early in June and proceed to Switzerland. Maj. J. O. Culver, now connected with the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, takes editorial charge of the Madison Journal during Mr. Rublee's absence.

—A railway tie of polished California laurel, mounted at either end with solid silver, accompanied by a spike of solid gold, costing two hundred dollars, was forwarded from San Francisco yesterday to the end of the Central Pacific Railroad. It is the last tie, and will be laid by Leland Stanford on Saturday next, thus completing the Pacific Railroad.

—The Grand Encampment and Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows is in session in San Francisco. The annual reports indicate unusual progress of the Order in the past year. Committees were appointed to make suitable arrangements for the reception of delegates of the Grand Lodge of the United States which holds its next annual meeting in San Francisco.

—Joseph Holmes, colored, a member of the late Constitutional Convention, was killed at Charlotte Court House, Va., on Monday. A personal difficulty occurred between him and John Marshall, of whose family Holmes was formerly a body servant. Both parties drew pistols and the firing commenced, which was participated in by Marshall's friends. After being shot Holmes walked into the Court House and fell dead.

—The old liquor license law having expired, the State constabulary informed all dealers in Boston they must close their places forthwith. None complied, however, the bar-rooms continuing open as usual, and prosecutions will be commenced. The result will be, it is thought, that all the public drinking saloons will be closed and the club-rooms of a few years since renewed. The proprietor of a drinking place, called "The Highlands," was so excited when informed he must close business that he became insane and hung himself. At a meeting of liquor dealers and hotel proprietors, to the number of 500 or 600, called to determine what action should be taken with reference to the law, the matter was discussed, the legislature denounced, and resistance decided upon, collectively and individually. A resolution was passed favoring the formation of a new political party at once, with a chief purpose to secure more liberal legislation on the liquor and other questions, and a committee appointed to take the preliminary steps.

FOUR O'CLOCK A. M.

THE CAPITAL.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 4, 1869.

Ira Bloomfield has been appointed Supervisor of Internal Revenue for the District of Illinois, vice John Olney. The President has appointed E. J. Curtis Secretary of Idaho Territory, vice J. R. Howlett, superceded.

Mrs. Grant's reception to-day, probably the last of the season, was attended by a large number of ladies and gentlemen.

The Dyer Court of Inquiry is still in secret session, making up their finding, which it is expected will be reached and sent to the Secretary of War. Maj. Gen. George H. Thomas, President of the Court, will leave for California, Thursday, accompanied by Col. Willard and other members of his staff.

Colonel J. A. Martin, Adjutant General, formerly at army head-quarters and more recently aid to Secretary Rawlins, left Washington to day for the west, where he is assigned to duty.

All the prominent officials of the Internal Revenue Bureau, who were immediately connected with commissioners office during the administration of Rollins, except Deputy Commissioner Burnell, have been removed. Several appointments of assessors and collectors will probably be made in the course of a few days.

Governor Wells, of Virginia, was among the callers at the Executive Mansion, before the meeting of the cabinet, and had a brief interview with the President on political subjects appertaining to that state. He returned to Richmond to-night.

John W. Wright has replied to the statements, recently published relative to the alleged frauds practised by him on the Cherokee and other Indians, in the matter of bounty payments. He says, among other things, drafts were issued by the Government in the name of soldiers, and he could not use a dollar without the endorsement of those allowed bounty. H. D. Keese, Chairman of the Cherokee delegation, who aided in making out the claims of Indian soldiers, endorses the truth of Wright's statement.

NEW YORK CITY.

Small Pox on Shipboard—Danish Minister Married—Expeditions for Cuba—Mass Meeting at Cooper Institute—Resolutions Adopted Asking the Government to Recognize Cuban Revolutionists as Belligerents.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 4, 1869.

Geo. H. Reed, at present in the Bellevue Hospital, arrived recently in the steamship Alaska, states that on the trip from Aspinwall the smallpox broke out and seven deaths occurred in two days. Some of the bodies were thrown overboard.

The Danish Minister, Mr. De Belle, was married to-day to a daughter of Chancellor Labriski, of Jersey City.

The Express says United States Marshal Barlow has received reliable information that a steamer left this port last night for Cuba with three hundred men, each provided with a rifle and uniform; that the vessel also took a large quantity of light clothing, and provisions to last a month or six weeks. The Express adds that another expedition is preparing. The Marshal is investigating the matter.

The steamer Scotia, from Liverpool, on the 24th ult., arrived this evening.

The steamship Cambria, from Hamburg, April 2 st, has arrived.

A mass meeting of the friends of Cuban independence was held this evening in and around the Cooper Institute. Hon. Chas. A. Dana presided. Resolutions expressing sympathy with the struggling patriots of Cuba, and demanding the recognition of their rights as belligerents, were adopted. Spirited adresses were made by Hon. Jno. McKeen, Henry Ward Beecher, and others.

The Connecticut Legislature.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARTFORD, May 4.—Gov. Jewell will be inducted into office to-morrow, and a large military and civil demonstration is expected. The Governor elect held a reception at the Allyn House this evening, which was very largely attended.

The Legislative caucusses held a meeting this evening. The Republicans of the Senate nominated David Gallup, of Plainfield, President pro. tem., and Dwight Marcy, of Rockville, Clerk. The Republicans of the House nominated O. H. Platt, of Meriden, Speaker, J. A. Tibbetts, of New London, Clerk, and E. Bennett, of Hartford, Assistant Clerk. Both Houses being largely Republican, of course the Republican nominees will be elected.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

BIRMINGHAM COUNCIL.

Regular Meeting—Monthly Reports—Tax Levy for 1869—Petitions, &c., &c.

Last evening a regular monthly meeting of the Birmingham Council was held at the office of Burgess Salisbury.

Burgess Salisbury presided.

Present—Messrs. Atterbury, McIlwaine, Redman, Ward, Oliver, Doyle, Schwarm, Vogely and Salisbury.

The minutes of the preceding regular and special meetings were read and approved.

MONTHLY REPORTS.

The borough officers presented their monthly reports, of which the following is a synopsis;

Markets—Receipts from markets, $260,-75; expenditures, $268,27; balance due market master, $7,52.

Streets—Warrants received, $200; from balance last report, $42 06; expenditures, including salary, $304 64; balance due D. Doran, Street Commissioner, $146 70.

Hay Scales—Receipts from hay scales, $61 95; deduct commission, $20 65; balance due borough,———.

Wharf—Receipts from wharf, $34 50; deduct commission, $8 62; balance due borough, $25 88.

THE TREASURY.

The exhibit of the Treasurer was as follows:

Borough fund, amount on hand	$ 572 98
Market fund	1,118 07
Bounty fund, amount on hand	65 20
Total	$1,756 25

Two thousand dollars of the market fund was transferred to the borough fund to show the amount as above.

The report further stated that the Treasurer had negotiated a loan of $3,-800 for four months, to meet the last installments on the county bonds, all of which had been paid out excepting the balance headed "Bounty Fund." Approved.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mr. Atterbury moved that all the report be referred to the Finance Committee for the purpose of having them examined. Adopted.

Mr. Atterbury, from the Special Committee, reported having presented the resolution relative to the widening of Manor street, adopted at the special meeting of the Council held on the 19th, ult. to the Directors of the Monongahela Valley Railroad Company, and stated they had accepted the terms proposed.

On motion of Mr. Oliver, the report was accepted and the committee continued.

Mr. Oliver, from the Street Committee, reported that various improvements were being made in different parts of the borough. Report accepted and approved.

Mr. Schwarm, from the Police Committee, reported having retained the two night police for the borough. Report accepted and approved.

Mr. Redman moved that hereafter reports of committees be made in writing. Carried.

BOROUGH TAXES.

The Burgess said the time had arrived for the fixing of the borough taxes for the present year. He then read a certified copy of an act passed by the last Legislature, giving the borough authority to levy a tax of twenty mills, after which he submitted an estimate of the probable expenses for the current year, as follows:

Bounty bonds due	$ 4,800 00
Sewer bonds due	4,500 00
Police	2,000 00
Gas	1,000 00
Streets	5,000 00
Treasurer, Clerk, Solicitor and Burgess	850 00
	$16,150 00
Add bills for paving, &c., now due	2,000 00
	$18,150 00

To meet this expenditure the following receipts are anticipated:

Markets	$3,000 00
Hay Scales	500 00
Wharf	500 00
Vehicle License	800 00
Due the Borough	1,400 00
	$6,200 00

Leaving $12,000 to be raised by taxation.

After some discussion Mr. Attevbury moved that 15 mills be levied.

Mr. Ward moved as an amendment that the levy be fixed at 17½ mills.

Mr. Atterbury accepted Mr. Ward's amendment, fixing the levy at 17½ mills, and the motion as amended was adopted

Mr. Schwarm presented a petition from citizens residing on Fourteenth street, requesting Councils to pass an ordinance authorizing the grading and paving of the street.

The Burgess also read a petition from citizens residing on Franklin (now Sixteenth) street, asking for the grading and paving of said street.

Referred to the Street Committee, to report at the next meeting.

A number of bills, including salaries of borough officers, were read, and warrants ordered to be drawn for their payment. Adjourned.

Renegade of the Potomac.

A national drama under the above title will be produced at the Academy of Music next week, under the auspices of Posts 35 and 88 of the Grand Army of the Republic. The entertainment, we are assured, will be of such a character that those of the community not classed as theatre goers will not hesitate to join with others, less scrupulous in such matters, in affording encouragement of the substantial kind to the surviving soldiers of the Union in their organized efforts to preserve the bond of friendship sealed on many fields of bloody strife in their country's cause, to aid in the support of crippled comrades and the widows of those who fell, and to assist in the education of their orphans. The stage arrangements will be superintended by a gentleman of experience in that way, and the characters in the play will be personated by members of the order, the leading one by Mr. D. A. Jones, of the Birmingham Post, whose performance in the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh," during the winter, elicited such high commendation. We trust the gentlemen having charge of the arrangements may be as successful as they anticipate, and that the entertainment will be deserving we entertain no doubt whatever.

DECORATION DAY.

Convention of the Grand Army of the Republic—Arrangements Decided On.

A Convention of the several Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in this vicinity was held at Post No. 3, Tuesday evening, May 4th, for the purpose of making arrangements relative to the decoration of the graves of their companions in arms who sacrificed their lives to save the country during the late rebellion, in compliance with the order issued by General Logan.

The Convention was called to order by the election of W. B. Cook as temporary Chairman. General A. L. Pearson was chosen permanent Chairman and Chas. A. Miller, of Post No. 35, J. T. Cunningham, of Post No. 117, Martin Shaffer, of Post No. 151, and W. B. Cook, of Post No. 3, Secretaries.

Gen. A. L. Pearson, upon taking the chair, stated the object of the Convention at length, urging the importance of the order of Gen. Logan.

Comrade Gray, of Post 3, moved to celebrate the 29th.

Amended by Comrade Dalgleish, of Post 3, to observe both Saturday and Sunday —Saturday public demonstration, and on Sunday religious services.

Amended by Comrade Shaffer, of Post 151, to refer to a committee of three from each Post, to report the day to be observed. Carried, and the following were appointed:

No. 151—Messrs. Shaffer, Weaver, Barr. No. 35—Messrs. Colwell, Strant, Tyler. No. 3—Messrs. McClanahan, Silvey, Wm. Dalgleish. No. 117—J. T. Cunningham, three votes. No. 88—W. C. Cook, three votes. No. 38—A. L. Pearson.

On motion, each Post to have their votes in the Committee.

While the Committee retired a recess was taken.

The Committee appearing in the room, the meeting came to order, and the Chairman of the Committee reported that they were unable to agree. Report accepted and Committee discharged.

Comrade Barr, of Post No. 151, moved to observe Sunday, the 30th.

Amended by Comrade Cook, No. 3, to to observe both the 29th and 30th. Amendment lost.

Comrade Cook, Post 3, offered a substitute which the Chair ruled out of order.

Comrade Collier, Post No. 3, appealed from the decision.

The appeal was not sustained.

The question recurring on the original motion, it was carried.

Comrade Cook, Post No. 3, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That an Executive Committee consisting of one Comrade from each Post be appointed, who shall have charge of all general arrangements for the observance of Decoration Day.

Resolved That the several Posts of this county do hereby extend a cordial invitation to all persons not members of the G. A. R., and who feel an interest in the noble object in which we are engaged, to participate in the decoration ceremonies on Sunday, May 30th.

The resolutions were adopted.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Chairman, Geo. S. Wood, Post 151; Geo. S. Smith, Post 3; A. P. Callow, Post 35; Harbaugh, Post 38; W. C. Cook, Post 58; J. F. Denniston Post 117; Martin Shaffer, Post 151.

Comrade Montooth moved that when the Convention adjourn, it adjourn to meet at the call of the Chairman. Carried.

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway—Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Last evening the first annual meeting of the stockholders of the Federal Street and Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway Company was held at Gray's Hotel, on Pasture Lane, Second Ward Allegheny. There was a full attendance and the proceedings were marked with harmony throughout.

At eight o'clock the meeting was organized by John Brown Jr. taking the chair, and J. T. Blair acting Secretary.

Mr. Wm. M. Claney Esq., Secretary, read the annual report, showing the condition of the road.

The report of the Superintendent, Mr. H. T. Price, was also read.

From the reports it appeared that four cars have been kept running during most of the time, and no trouble has been experienced in the management. The fiscal affairs of the company seem to be in a flourishing condition. During the month of March the receipts amounted to $938.37, an increase of over $400 above the receipts of the previous month.

Both reports were approved and ordered to be filed.

On motion, it was resolved to give aid and encouragement to the proposed omnibus line to run in connection with the company's cars, from the terminus of the railroad line at the postoffice, Allegheny, to the Pittsburgh postoffice, via Federal street, Suspension Bridge, St. Clair street and Fifth avenue, and if the line were fully established to sell tickets for the entire distance traversed by the omnibus line and the cars, for six cents.

The election of a President and Board of Directors was the next business in order.

Messrs. Bernard Gray, W. T. Trimble and William Carr were appointed tellers.

W. H. McCreery was unanimously elected President of the Company, in place of Mr. W. S. Bissell, who declined re-election.

The following gentlemen were then chosen Directors for the ensuing year: Jonathan Gallagher, H. T. Price, A. Leggate, W. S. Bissell, B. Gray, Capt. John Birmingham, J. Myers, and W. J. Anderson.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Wm. M. Claney for the manner in which he had discharged the duties of Secretary of the Company.

The Directors elect were notified to meet Wednesday evening, May 5th, at the office of H. T. Price, Esq., for organization.

Adjourned.

The Difficulty

Between a number of South-side residents, on Saturday night or Sunday morning last, the particulars of which we have given, did not occur on the Monongahela (or Birmingham) bridge, but on Second avenue, a considerable distance from it. The attention of the bridge watchman was not called to the disturbance, and consequently the assailing parties did not flee upon his approach, as was stated; but some time afterward, in making his round, he discovered one of the persons said to have been assaulted asleep at the north end of the bridge. Police office intelligence is not always reliable, of which this case is an instance.

Fifth Avenue Bank—Meeting of Stockholders—Directors Nominated.

An adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Fifth Avenue Bank of Pittsburgh was held in the hall over Whitehead's grocery store, corner of Pride street and Fifth avenue, yesterday (Tuesday) evening, Mr. Samuel Morrow in the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Chairman announced that the stock had all been subscribed and they were now ready for organization.

The Secretary, Mr. Schnable, then read the Constitution, as adopted at the preceding meeting, when, on motion of Dr. McCandless, the time for holding the annual election, which was left blank, was fixed on the second Tuesday of May.

The Secretary reported that the stock had all been taken within three days after the books were open, and there were applications for about two hundred shares more than there were to issue.

The Chairman stated that the meeting was now ready to receive nominations for directors for the ensuing year.

On motion, the meeting proceeded to nominate candidates for directors.

The following named gentlemen were placed in nomination:

Ed. Dithridge,	F. L. Groes,
Danl. Kinser,	Wm. F. Keyser,
J. M. Faas,	Jacob Miller,
W. H. Sims,	Henry Meyer,
Aaron Floyd,	A. C. Whiteheard,
C. F. Bauer,	H. D. Bright,
Frank Seibert,	John Keyser,
D. M. Armor,	Philip Kramer,
W. P. Weyman,	W. P. Lewis,
Nicholas Swartz,	H. W. Fulton,
Dr. A G McCandless	G. W. Shoenberger,
A. A. Anderson,	Chas. F. Borden,
Eml. Portzel,	John Keyser.
David Stein,	John E. Foulks,
Phillip Grady,	John Beckert,
L. P. Lippert,	Henry Deitler.
W. C. Robinson,

On motion, the nominations closed.

On motion, it was resolved to hold the election between the hours of three and eight o'clock P. M. on the second Tuesday of May.

The following named gentlemen were selected by a unanimous vote of the stockholders to act as Judges of the Election: R. A. Schnable, F. DeHahn and Geo. C. Hess.

Some discussion then ensued relative to the location of the banking house.

Mr. Dithridge moved that the stockholders instruct the directors to locate the bank on Fifth (formerly Pennsylvania) avenue.

On motion, it was resolved that any stock that should be relinquished by present stockholders should be given to the parties applying in the order as their names appeared on the books.

The meeting then adjourned.

Amusements.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Another large and brilliant audience assembled at the Opera House last night, on the occasion of the second presentation of Humpty-Dumpty, the triumph trick pantominic and ballet combination of the century. The play passed off even better last night than on the first production, the scores of actors knowing their cues perfectly and the machinery of transformation working admirably. This afternoon a grand matinee for ladies and the little folks will be given, and those who think excessive and immoderate laughter a crime should stay at home, for the play is so risible that the chief mourner at a funeral couldn't help bursting into fun on thinking of Humpty-Dumpty.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—A large audience, as usual, assembled at this place of amusement last night, by all of whom the performance seemed to be highly appreciated. To-night Mr. J. W. Andrews, one of the most painstaking and deserving of the company, takes a benefit. A new programme has been arranged, in which the entire company will appear. The house will doubtless be crowded.

THE READINGS.—Our readers should not forget the reading entertainment to be given at the Academy of Music to-morrow night. The programme selected for the occasion is one of great variety, and will fully exhibit the superior abilities of Miss Dargon as a reader. We can assure all who attend, a rare intellectual treat.

CONCERT AND EXHIBITION.—A concert and exhibition for the benefit of the Sabbath School connected with the First Methodist Church, East Birmingham, will be given in the Church, on Meadow street, this evening, by the children of the school. The entertainment promises to be a very pleasant one. All who can make it convenient should attend and aid the worthy cause.

THE MUSEUM.—Major Burnell, by energy and attention to business, is enabled to make his museum and parlor menagerie one of the most frequented places of amusement in the city, a very good evidence of its character. It is open day and evening.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following deeds were filed of record before H. Snively, Esq., Recorder, April 27th, 1869:

MORTGAGES

The same day ten mortgages were filed for record.

—Daniel Thompson, a river peddler, was murdered a short distance above Evansville, Ky., a few days ago, by a man named Scanlon and Mrs. Thompson, wife of the murdered man. The tragic affair was brought about by a close intimacy which existed between Scanlan and Thompson's wife.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

HOW THE STRIKE WAS ENDED.

BY ETHEL LYNN.

"A strike," they say in the Welton Mill;
The idle wheel in the stream stands still,
While water-rats through the braces run,
Where the drops fall trickling one by one;
Only the sun-lit waves look bright,
Shimmering upward in golden light;
Only the weed that was torn with spray
Is glad to rest all the livelong day.

Under the hill-side low doors ajar,
Echo loud threats of the "hands" at war;
Pale women waken from troubled sleep,
Hearing the oaths men have sworn to keep;
Plying the broom on the hearth-stone cold,
Scarce hiding tears when the cow is sold;
Wistfully watching if each new day
The "boss" shall speak, or the men give way.

Great Roger Green leads the angry band,
Ruling "The Union" with iron hand;
For many a man in the fortnight past
Has sought to speak, and has feared at last—
Feared for the sting of his bitter jest—
Feared for the vengeance but dimly guessed,
On him who looks from the ploughshare back,
Nor dares to hunger, and suffer lack.

But yesternight, when the meal was out,
His gray-haired mother's heart grew stout,
And she asked him boldly, "Is it well?"
He cursed in words I cannot tell.
The wife he loved in his rugged way,
Thinking the question she dared not say,
Flung on its hinges the cupboard door,
That his eyes might count all its wasted store.

So the strike continued. Till one night
His daughter Nelly grew strangely white,
And the dew of pain on her forehead lay,
Till the stars went out in the light of day.
By the trundle-bed, like a faithful hound,
Without a motion, without a sound,
Sat Roger tireless, till Nelly stirred,
And he, bending, listened to catch each word.

The wee hot hands on the blanket laid,
Drew closer together, while Nelly prayed;
But few and faint were the words she said:
"Give us, our Father, our daily bread."

The strike is over the mill's astir,
The workmen tend where the spindles whir;
And Roger watches with eager eye
When the noon-hour tells of Nelly nigh;
But he never tells of the mighty spell
That broke at the bidding of feeble Nell.

—The Union Pacific Railroad Company is going to erect a large number of good summer residences at Laramie. Before this century is out we will have all the world flocking over the Pacific roads in summer to the Rocky Mountains, just as now all the world goes to Switzerland, when it can afford it.

—Mexico has just reached that stage in civilization which Salem, Mass., had in the latter half of the seventeenth century, that is, women are flogged, hanged, shot, burned or drowned for being witches. Young and pretty women are comparatively safe, but the mortality among the ugly old ones is large.

—Hamburg, that innocent, industrious and excessively commercial free-city, is generally accused by ignorant newspapers of all the misdeeds of that little paradise of gamblers. Homburg, with an o. When we read that a man has lost his fortune gambling at Hamburg, we know that Homburg is meant, as at the other place the gambling done is in stocks and therefore respectable.

The Family Horror at Montgomery.

The following are stated to be the facts in relation to the terrible occurrence at Montgomery, which occurred there on Thursday last:

Mr. Alonzo C. Mullin is the husband of a sister of Abram Crist, the young farmer by whom he was shot, and it is reported that, on the morning referred to, it had been discovered by the father and mother that he had betrayed a younger daughter into criminal relations with himself, for which she was paying the penalty. Following the disclosure, the girl left home in shame and anguish, and could not be found. Then young Crist, on learning the facts, secured a double-barreled shotgun, loaded with deadly charges, and started for town. He arrived there just as his brother-in-law was at dinner, and opening the door without knocking, he stood within five feet of the table, Mr. Mullen's back toward him. The latter turned his face, said "Good day," and was getting up to give him a chair, when Mr. Crist pointed the gun at him and fired. The charge entered just under the back of the right shoulder, and the victim fell. He was cocking the other barrel when his sister, Mrs. Mullen, sprang at him, took hold of the muzzle of the gun, pushed the assassin brother out of the door and called for help. The neighbors ran towards the house, but Crist drew his gun on them, and forbid their entering the yard. Of course, a crowd soon assembled, and 'Squire Meyers, who had been informed of the affair, came armed as an officer, and Crist allowed himself to be arrested. Mr. Mullen was properly cared for, and at first it was thought he could not recover, but he lived, and, yesterday morning, was thought to be in a hopeful condition. Mr. Crist yesterday gave bail in three thousand dollars, was released and went to work as usual. The family were much troubled about the absence of the unfortunate girl, for fear she had committed some rash act; but she was heard from at a brother's in a neighboring town.—Cin. Commercial.

"Running a Muck."

A European resident of Macassar gives a vivid description of this scene in Malay:

One morning, as we were sitting at breakfast, Mr. Carter's servant informed us that there was an "Amok" in the village—in other words, that a man was "running a muck." Orders were immediataly given to shut and fasten the gates of our enclosure; but, hearing nothing for some time, we went out, and found there had been a false alarm, owing to a slave having run away, declaring he would "amok," becuause his master wanted to sell him. A short time before, a man had been killed at a gaming-table, because, having lost half a dollar more than he possessed, he was going to "amok." Another had killed or wounded seventeen people before he could be destroyed. In their wars a whole regiment of these people will sometimes agree to "amok," and then rush on with such energetic desperation as to be very formidable to men not so excited as themselves. Among the ancients these would have been looked upon as heroes or demigods who sacrificed themselves for their country. Here it is simply said—they made 'amok."

Macassar is the most celebrated place in the East for "running a muck." There is said to be one or two a month on the average, and five, ten or twenty persons are sometimes killed or wounded at one of them. It is the national, and, therefore, the honorable mode of committing suicide among the natives of Celebedes, and is the fashionable way of escaping from their difficulties. A Roman fell upon his sword, a Japanese rips up his stomach, and an Englishman blows out his brains with a pistol. The Bugis mode has many advantages to one suicidically inclined. A man thinks himself wronged by society—he is in debt, but cannot pay—he is taken for a slave, he has gambled away his wife or child into slavery—he sees no way of recovering what he has lost, and become desperate. He will not put up with such cruel wrongs, but will be revenged on mankind, and like a hero he grasps his kris-handle, and the next moment draws out the weapon and stabs a man to the heart. He runs on, with bloody kris in his hand, stabbing at every one he meets. "Amok! Amok!" then resounds through the streets. Spears, krisses, knives and guns are brought out against him. He rushes madly forward, kills all he can—men, women and children—and dies overwhelmed by numbers amid all the excitement of a battle. And what that excitement is, those who have been in one best know, but all who have ever given way to violent passions, or even indulged in violent and exciting exercises, may form a good idea. It is a delirious intoxication, a temporary madness that absorbs every thought and every energy. And can we wonder at the kris bearing, untaught, brooding Malay preferring such a death, looked upon as almost honorable to the cold-blooded details of suicide, if he wishes to escape from overwhelming troubles, or the merciless clutches of the hangman and the disgrace of a public execution, when he has taken the law into his own hands, and too hastily revenged himself upon his enemy? In either case he chooses rather to "amok."

A Companion of Washington Yet Alive.

Captain John Webster, who has reached the advanced age of 104 years, was born in Dublin in 1765, and came to this country in 1798. Soon after his arrival he was apprenticed in Georgetown to the firm of Noble & Crabtree, ship owners and chandlers. After serving his time he became captain of a vessel, and followed the sea for seventy five years. He was a schoolmate of both John and Charles Wesley, and their friend for years; is a strict follower of Wesley still, and speaks of him with the greatest affection. Having some business with the family he is visiting, I called to see him, and in answer to my ring he came to the door himself. This being the first time I had seen him, imagine my surprise when he replied, to my question of "How old are you?" "One hundred and four years." He must have noticed the strange look my face bore, for, smiling, he said, "I have my proofs in black and white." It seemed to me as if some grave had given up its dead, and for some minutes I could do no more than stare the old man in the face and mutter. Can it be? Said he: "I knew Daniel Webster well; was very intimate with him; have walked arm in arm with him many a time; have conversed with Washington time and again. My wife died five years ago, aged ninety-eight years. My eldest son is over seventy-four years old, and I have one daughter living in this city over sixty." The old gentleman is in excellent spirits, and does not seem to tire of conversation. He has his second sight, and can read writing if finely written, as well as the papers, without the aid of spectacles. His home is at the Sailors' Snug Harbor, from which place he comes unattended to visit his friends in the city. To have seen this old man and talked with him, seems to give one a new lease of life—to fill one with noble purposes, so that one's end may be like this noble follower of the Master to whose praise he gives all the moments of his latest years. To those who would like to see this old landmark that will soon have passed away, he extends a cordial invitation to visit him at the Sailors' Snug Harbor, Staten Island. —Sailors Magazine.

SOME of the symptons of old maidishness are thus described by a Scotch paper: "When a woman begins to drink her tea without sugar—that's a symptom. When a woman begins to read love-stories a bed—that's a symptom. When a woman gives a sigh on hearing of a wedding—that's a symptom. When a woman begins to say that she's refused many offers—that's a sympton. When a woman begins to say what a dreadful set of creatures men are, and that she wouldn't be bothered with one for all the world—that's a symptom. When a woman begins to have a little dog trotting after her—that's a symptom. When a woman begins to have a cat at her elbow at meal time, and gives it sweetened milk—that's a symptom. When a woman begins to say that a servant lass has no business to have a sweetheart—that's a symptom. When a woman begins to rub her fingers over the chairs and tables to see if they are dusty—that's a symptom. When a woman begins to go to bed with her stockings and a flannel night-cap on—that's a symptom!

THE wheat crop in East Tennessee, as well as in other portions of the State, is in splendid condition, and there is every prospect of an immense harvest this year.

DR. WHITTIER

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Cystitis, prritis, Amenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhœa, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, it can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P.M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was falling slowly last evening with eleven feet, full, by the Monongahela marks. Weather clear and pleasant and all that could be desired for outdoor business.

In addition to the departures of towboats with coal in our last issue, we have the following: For Cincinnati—Lion, 90,000 bushels; Diamond, 100,000; Lioness, 100,000; Eagle, 80,000; Coal City 100,000; J. F. Dravo, 65,000. For Louisville—Warner, 80,000; Boaz, 190,000; Lake Erie, No. 3, 130,000; N. J. Bigley, 75,000; Mary Ann, 150,000. This, in addition to what we reported yesterday, makes the whole amount that has gone forward on present rise, 2,030,000 bushels.

It is probabie that there will be additional departures to-day; if so, we will report them in our next issue.

The St. Marys departed for Cincinnati yesterday, with a good cargo, having all the freight, and more than she could handle, as shippers were choked off about noon. Pilots—O'Neil and Cable.

The Julia No. 2, departed for Zanesville, as usual.

The Tom Farrow and barges arrived on Monday night, with a fair freight list, including a considerable quantity of hay.

The Argosy, Capt. Lew Vandergrift, is filling up rapidly for St. Louis, and will be the first boat out. She is in excellent condition for business.

The Grey Eagle, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular packet for Parkersburg today, leaving promptly at noon.

The Boaz arrived on Monday, and will get out again on present water.

Capt. John Greenough, has assumed command of the Mary McDonald, thus making his connection with the St. Louis Republican, as river reporter, very brief. John is an old Pittsburgher.

The Leonidas and Wauanita, were advertised to leave St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Monday.

—The sternwheel steamer Nightingale is to be sold at auction at Cincinnati on Thursday.

—The Northern Line packets above Dubuque are to be adorned with "white collars." So says the Quincy Whig.

—The Belle Vernon being too deep to descend the falls at Louisville, sent part of her freight below by drays. A novel method of lighting.

—The Emma No. 3, Camelia and R. C. Gray were all advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday.

—Captain Joseph A. Moffett has been appointed Inspector of Machinery and Boilers of the steamers entering the port of New Orleans. He was formerly Mayor of New Albany.

—A Cairo telegram says: Some time ago Pat Connelly, deck hand on the steamer Louisville, stepped into a hole in the stage plank, while the steamer was lying at this port and injured his leg. He has brought suit against the owners of the steamer Louisville in the Common Pleas Court, claiming $10,000. It is said that on the day following the one on which he claimed to have been disabled he walked to the boat and collected the wages due him.

—Some time in 1865, the steamer Imperial, valued at $45,000, was sunk at Nashville, being run against a draw of the Louisville & Nashville railroad bridge. Recently a judgment of $22,000 was rendered in the Circuit Court at Nasville, in favor of the owners, who sued the railroad company. Subsequently a new trial was granted, and the railroad compromised the matter by paying $10,000 and costs. Shortly after the accident the Cincinnati insurance companies, which had insured the boat, paid to the owners the amount of insurance, and are now preparing to bring suit against the railroad company for the insurance money thus paid. Captain David White, one of the owners of the Imperial, and William G. Brien, Esq., of Nashville, attorney for the owners, arrived in Cincinnati, Saturday, to consult with the insurance companies.

—We are informed that there is an immense amount of corn to come out of Tennessee river, between Chattanooga and Knoxville, and there are no boats to carry it. Four boats are lying at Chattanooga, idle, but they are owned by two men who are also owners of a large amount of corn on hand, and desire to dispose of it before any more is placed on the market. The price of corn at Cattanooga was increased from 75c to 80@85c, on Thursday. Our informant is of opinion that a boat could get from 15c to 20c per sack for carrying corn from Knoxville to Chattanooga, a distance of less than 140 miles, and that, too, when Tennessee river is reported to be very high and rising.—Cincinnati Gazette.

—The St Louis Democrat as will be seen by the following, is very much pleased with Pittsburgh towboats: The Antelope left again yesterday for Dubuque, with a lot of coal barges. It is true that towboats built at Pittsburgh are an excellent institution. This one arrived from Dubuque Friday morning, making the fastest time on steamboat record. Time, 30 hours and 5 minutes; distance, 474 miles. Rock Island to St. Louis, time 22 hours and 38 minutes; distance, 349 miles. Cupp and Kelly were the pilots of the Antelope on this occasion.

PROPOSALS.

TO THE MANUFACTURERS, MECHANICS, And Business Men Generally.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received until the 15th day of June next, by the undersigned, to employ, by hire, all the convict labor of the Tennessee State Penitentiary.

The Lessee is to take all the able bodied convicts now an hand, or who may hereafter come into the prison during his term of lease, except those needed by the State to keep up the establishment. He shall also be authorized to occupy and take charge of all the shops and workhouses in said prison, to put up such machinery as he may desire, and shall have the privilege of buying, at such prices as may be agreed upon, all the Machinery, Tools, Fixtures and Materials on hand, of all finished and unfinished.

Said Lessee shall treat those hired with humanity and kindness, conforming to such rules, bylaws and regulations as may be established by the Directors, and work them not exceeding ten hours each day. For each convict so employed, the Lessee shall pay into the State Treasury the price per day bid, said payment to be made quarterly.

He shall also give bond, with approved security in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, payable to the State of Tennessee, for the faithful performance of the undertaking hereby imposed. Said lease to continue for four years, at the end of which term a new proposal from said Lessee shall have preference for the next four years; provided he shall have faithfully discharged his obligations to the satisfaction of the Directors; said preference not to exclude proposals from others manifestly more conducive to the interests of the State.

The workshops are built in a very substantial manner, with sufficient capacity for working five or six hundred hands; well lighted and ventilated; also conveniently arranged. There is one sixty-five horse power engine, capable of running all the machinery. The machinery has all of the most modern improvements for the manufacturing of Cedar Ware, Furniture, Agricultural Implements, Wagons, &c. There is also a machine shop, containing nine lathes and two bolt machines, a blacksmith shop with nine forges, clevis machine, three trip hammers and tools complete; a foundry one hundred and forty feet long and forty-five feet wide, with flasks for making all kinds of hollow ware, plows, corn shellers, etc; also patterns for stove and other castings. Also, one building used for manufacturing bagging, containing fifteen looms, with all the necessary machinery for spinning, etc. There is also a stone shop, paint shop and dry house.

The prison buildings are beautifully located just outside of the corporation of Nashville, and within one quarter of a mile of two railroad depots and one mile of the steamboat landing.

There are now about four hundred and fifty convicts in the prison, most of whom have served some years and are skilled mechanics in their respective branches of business. The prison is under a Board of Directors, and a Warden, whose duty it is to provide for the wants of the convicts and to see that strict discipline is maintained.

Proposals may be addressed to the undersigned or Secretary of State, within case they should be indorsed "Proposals for leasing the Tennessee Penitentiary."

Any further information desired will be furnished by addressing the Directors of the Penitentiary, Nashville.

THIRTEEN of the western railways earned, in the three months ending with March, a total sum of $14,613,942, or nearly two millions more than in the same period of 1868.

THE NATIONAL BANKS of New York exhibit a very healthy statement, and the fact that their reserve is seven millions in excess of the requirements, proves a more than ordinary adherence to the provisions of the law under which they operate.

BROOKLIN is to have a paid fire department, similar in every respect to that proposed recently in our Councils. Nearly every city of any importance in the country will soon have their machines in the hands of hired laborers.

A CONGRESS of the Cuban revolutionists has formally declared that they are fighting Spain first, for their independence, and next for annexation to the United States. This is a nice bait thrown out to catch and involve our government in their sympathy.

BARON GEROLT, who has so ably and creditably represented at our National Capital the Prussian Government during the past twenty-two years, left for his native country on a visit yesterday. Prussia evidently appreciates the importance of keeping good men long in position.

AN ASTUTE member of the Cleveland Board of Education opposed the employment of fair maidens as teachers on the ground that "they are continually looking out for a chance of getting married." Very clever, but no wonder they are, since their salaries are so slim that they cannot help hoping to better their condition. Marriage is preferable to genteel starvation.

HEREAFTER, soldiers, or their heirs bounty-claimants from the government, will receive their funds directly from the Pay Department at Washington, the attorney handling no funds whatever except his own fee, which the Government transmits to him directly. The claimant receives one check, and the attorney the other. This new arrangement takes effect under the joint-resolution of April 10th, and is intended to protect claimants from frauds and extortions.

MR. A. T. DOUTHETT who has filled the position of County Superintendent of Common Schools for three successive terms, covering a period of nine years, was re elected yesterday, at a convention of the School Directors, held in the city. The opposition was divided between two other candidates, and was not of a serious nature. The Convention also took some action concerning the Normal School project, which has been under consideration for some time.

TWENTY-ONE HUNDRED fraudulent votes have so far been proved to have been cast for the Democratic ticket in Philadelphia last October. Nor is all the evidence yet in, before the Examiners who are hearing it under the order of the Court. That, by the bye, it is well enough to mention, is the Court of Common Pleas, not the Court of Justice THOMPSON or Justice SHARSWOOD, or Prothonotary SNOWDEN. These functionaries do not appear to share in any taste for such unseemly investigations.

IT IS understood that Mr. J. S. CARLISLE has returned to West Virginia, somewhat disgusted with his failure to secure the Swedish mission. We trust it may prove to have been a failure. There are contradictory reports relative to the Brazilian mission; which was supposed to have been offered to Mr. BLOW. Delays in the final disposal of that place, are now spoken of. The suggestion of the name of Gen. SICKLES, for Madrid, has awakened some opposition, but this is likely to prove unavailing.

THE new State Treasurer, R. W. MACKEY, Esq., entered upon the duties of his office on Monday last. General W. W. IRWIN, his predecessor, retired, leaving the finances of the Commonwealth in a position which reflects a higher credit upon his official capacity and integrity than may be expressed by merely eulogistic words. During his term, he has redeemed $2,375,366 71 of the State loan, and his successor finds a balance of $1,135,134 32 cash in the Treasury.

THE American cotton crop averaged, from 1856 to 1861, about 3,742,251 bales per year. The three years since the war show a production, respectively, of 2,522,694 bales for '65-6, 2,171,716 bales for '66-7, and 2,591,601 bales for '67-8. These figures, in Hunt's Magazine, are supposed to present the first accurate and complete statement that has yet been made. It is seen that the production is considerably below the anti-rebellion figures, but it is increasing slowly, while the prices of the late crop have been so high as to yield to the planter quite as much cash as in any former year.

THE act of 1862 gave discretionary power to the Secretary of the Treasury to establish a sinking-fund for the gradual liquidation of the public debt. Mr. MCCULLOCH never found the public finances so easy as to warrant him in exercising these powers. Our new Secretary, however, gives notice of his intention to create such a fund as early as July 1st, and to appropriate from the current revenues therefor, regularly from and after that date. Either this means that the Treasury is to be more capably and prudently administered by Mr. BOUTWELL, or that the advent of President GRANT has been accompanied by a marked improvement in the financial situation of the Government.

THE ST. LOUIS merchants seem to have taken a fresh stock of business enterprise, and are arousing themselves from the lethargy which permitted other cities to draw to themselves advantages which she once enjoyed. So far as formidable papers, and progressive resolutions of her Board of Trade are concerned, St. Louis is making rapid headway towards the position which she feels she should enjoy. New Orleans looks on complacently at the frantic endeavors of St. Louis, and chuckles over the idea that she will benefit by any tangible good her cotemporary may obtain. The grain business has been satisfactorily disposed of by speeches, resolutions and memorials, and now the Brazilian trade is receiving attention. Poor New York!

CARLISLE.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says: "It is again reported from Washington that Mr. Carlisle is to be reappointed to the Stockholm mission. That gentleman returned to Washington, we hear, last Sunday; so it is fair to infer he is himself not without some expectations. If General Grant and his advisers want to fill the Republicans of West Virginia with unutterable disgust, they cannot find a more effective way than through Mr. Carlisle's reappointment to Stockholm, especially after all that has transpired and all that is known."

PLACE FOR THE CHILDREN!

The greatest sufferers by the late war are the orphans of those men who fell victims to it, the adopted children of the nation. These children, too young to take a part in the great struggle, will as citizens hereafter reap the advantages resulting from it perhaps, as they certainly have felt its bitterness. On the coming 30th of May, these orphans of the soldiers will of course take part in the decoration of the graves of their fathers, whether that decoration be a ceremonious or a private one. Those gentlemen who have the arrangements, for the proceedings of that day, in charge, should decide upon what part, if any, the children shall take, and it is desired that the persons in whose care they are should know, before they make other arrangements for them, for a day which to them is, or ought to be, perhaps, the most sacred of the whole year.

The presence of these children cannot fail to impart, to the most formal proceedings of Memorial Day, that air of just solemnity which will be most befitting in a National tribute to their fathers, who sleep in honored graves that the Republic may live. In view of the general expectation, which assigns to the children in blue a leading place on that day, we hope to be enabled to acquaint our readers ere long with the order of the commemorative ceremonials.

OHIO RAILWAY LEGISLATION.

The new railroad-law which the Ohio Legislature has just enacted for the benefit of Cincinnati is so remarkable in its provisions as to justify a brief synopsis for our columns. Cincinnati is not named in the law, but it expressly applies to cities "of the first class," having more than 150,000 inhabitants, and there is but one such city in Ohio.

Whenever a majority of the elected members of a City Council shall adopt a resolution declaring that a line of railway, to be specified in the resolution, and between designated termini, is essential to the interest of the city, the Court of Common Pleas, upon the petition of the City Solicitor, may appoint a board of five trustees. When these trustees shall be duly authorized, by the vote of a majority of the electors of the city voting expressly in favor of the construction of such railway, they may issue bonds, in the name of the city, for not over $10,000,000, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, which shall be secured by mortgage on the road and its income, which shall be sold at not less than par, and the interest of which, with the added provision for sinking fund, shall be met by such annual tax as shall be needed to make up the deficiency of current income. The trustees give bond to the city. They shall have control of the funds and disburse them in the construction of the proposed railway, with all the powers, privileges and duties usually pertaining to a railway directory. A delinquent trustee may be removed by the Court on the application of the solicitor, or of any tax-payer, for cause shown. They are authorized, instead of constructing a new line, to purchase any existing road which may properly be adopted as a part of the line proposed. When the road shall be completed, the trustees shall lease it to any party who will comply with such conditions as the Council may fix.

This is the substance of the Cincinnati law. A few days after, Toledo was authorized also to build a road, upon the approval of a two-thirds vote of her Council and tax-payers, to cost not over $450,000, paying for it at once by a direct levy of that sum, by a five per cent. tax on her duplicate. Toledo wants a road eastward, to the broad-gauge track in Summit county. Cincinnati wants a Southern connection. The first road would be altogether in Ohio; the second altogether out of the State. Either city may undertake the work, whenever a majority in one case and two-thirds in the other, of her voters may approve of it.

It is needless to remark that when either question shall be presented to the people, it will be on issues between the voters and the tax-payers. There is an ugly Constitutional question which already looms up, and will not be easily put down. Nevertheless, the roads may be voted for, and the projects will go on unless the Courts shall interpose. The bills were rushed—in fact, we may say, were whirled—through the Legislature at railway speed—leaving discussion upon details to come afterward. Of this, from the present indications, there is likely to be a good deal.

A FRANK APPEAL.

It is evident that our Democratic friends, who think they have a right to support the claims of Judge PACKER for the Gubernatorial nomination, are a little restive under the ill-disguised efforts of some of the indiscreet friends of our own candidate, General CASS, to crowd them off the track. But all parties should exercise a little forbearance with each other. The Eastern Democracy will do well to remember that the friends of our own candidate think it hard that their demands should be forever ignored, merely because they are so unfortunate as to be found only on the western side of the mountains and in a part of the Commonwealth which usually contributes to Democratic victories with a Republican majority of from ten to thirty thousand. It is we who think it quite unkind in our Eastern friends, to insist upon naming always the candidate, merely because they have to do the work in electing him. It is true that our Democracy cannot do much in the way of majorities, but they feel that, if they are to be forever denied any crumbs from the table which is kept up from the party strongholds in Central and Eastern Pennsylvania, even the fervor of their principles may ultimately abate, and, perhaps, the annihilation of the western wing of the party would be complete. Aware that their claims may not be pressed upon the score of justice, our Democracy of the west confidently appeal to the magnanimity of Berks, Luzerne, Bucks, York and the northern Gibraltars of the party, to forego all merely personal considerations, and take them in, at least once, out of the cold.

This petition of our friends and neighbors is urgently put, and it is sustained with touching proofs of past fidelity to the party. For example, the Pittsburgh Post, with a significant frankness which does credit to the excellence of its memory and to the charitable sweetness of its fraternal feeling, reminds all whom it may concern of the clear record of the Western Democracy. The point is well put by our neighbor as follows:

> The Democracy of Western Pennsylvania do not belong to a class who attempt to get up a bogus convention after nominations are made, or show any signs of lukewarmness.

We trust the allusion will be understood and heeded in the right quarters.

It will do no harm to have a better understanding all round. It is not the fault of our Democracy, or of their proclivity for unpopular candidates, that the majorities of the "Radicals" foot up higher and higher each year in this quarter of the Commonwealth. Democratic opinion here settles down into the conviction that this ugly feature of their political record is to be fully accounted for, by the reluctance of their Eastern friends to recognize them with an occasional sop in the way of a nomination. They feel that it is unfair to attribute this decline, in the strength of the party here, to those war-issues which, by the common Democratic consent, are now exploded. It may have been true that some of our Democracy did, at one time, decline to support a party, or a candidate, occupying a disloyal position which justified, excused or even palliated the most causeless and infamous rebellion of modern times. But hope tells now a more flattering tale. Our Democracy will insist, in the coming Convention, that no matter how obnoxious in this respect, the record of a favorite candidate may once have been, that Democratic charity, which knows how to expand its mantle of oblivion over the most flagrant political sins, should, and may safely, be spread over all his short-comings toward the Union, so long as he stands acquit of any shadow of infidelity to his party. We trust that this view may prevail, and that the Democracy of Pennsylvania will go into the canvass of '69, nobly reaffirming the broad National doctrines which were its pride in '60-'62, and with its standard committed to the hands of a gentleman who, alone in the present competition, may faithfully represent them.

On the score, then, of generosity, of courage, and of fidelity to its past record, the Democracy are affectionately entreated to heed the appeals which come to them over the Alleghenies, in behalf of one who stands, as he then stood, faithful among so many faithless, in this Western citadel of the Radical enemy.

NOT MUCH OF A CONFLICT.

The Louisville Express, a new journal which represents, with a good deal of pertinacity, the reluctance of a portion of the people of Kentucky to permit their inclinations to wait upon a better judgment, discovered, in the appeal of a negro criminal to the Federal Court, "a picture terrible in its portentous and ominous outlines." It adds:

> The issue is now made, and postponement will not decide it. It will have to be met and settled, and may be in this very case. If Judge Ballard holds, after due consideration, that the case is properly in his court, somebody will have to back down or do something more decisive. We have had a terrible war in the field, and we are now fairly in the way to another on the forum. We see no way to avoid the conflict if the Federal government persists in its present policy.

But, a day or two after, the despondent Express thought better of the situation. Thus:

> In a conflict of the kind suggested there can be no doubt of the power that would succeed. The Sheriff, backed by the posse comitatus of his bailiwick, and supported by the Governor with all the power of the State—military and civil—would be weakness personified before the marshalled myrmidons of the mighty United States. The victory would be Federal and easily enough won; but the end thereof, in the distant future, might not be so easily handled. It would be a crushing out of the powers of a sovereign State, and the bringing about of that consolidated government which has been incubating in our unfortunate country ever since the rebellion began. It would be the finishing stroke of that fanatical Northern policy which is daily obliterating State lines, and which must end in despotism. * * * *
>
> Take our advice, then, august United States Circuit Court! and let Conley be hung, as he ought to be, under the sentence of our State Court.
>
> We breathe again!

How to make Sweet Breath.

Food, to be perfectly digested, must be taken only in such quantities as the system demands, and if we take only natural food, in which is the appropriate mixture of necessary elements, the appetite can always be trusted to interpret the demands of the system, and in that case we should never eat too much. But eating, as we do, flour, butter and sugar, which have but a part of the elements required, these articles can only be digested as they are eaten with food deficient in the elements which they contain, and these are very few. Consequently these redundant articles, in just about the proportions in which they are eaten, remain undigested in the stomach and bowels, causing flatulence and derangement of the secretions of the stomach, mouth and all the digestive organs, and the sordes of the teeth, bad taste in the mouth, foulness of breath, and fastidious appetite, which they always have who live on these concentrated carbonaceous articles.

I have often wished—but of course never dared to suggest the idea—that our fastidious confectionary and cake-eating young ladies, who have no appetite except for unnatural carbonaceous food, and whose breath is in consequence so offensive to themselves as to require constantly some aromatic seeds or trix, and whose mouth is so filled with offensive saliva, and whose teeth so covered with sordes, that charcoal and a tooth-brush used every day will not keep them clean, might look into the mouth of a cow, a dog, or even a pig, neither of which use charcoal, tooth-brush or trix, and see how clean the mouth and teeth are, and how pure the secretions, and ("angels and ministers of grace defend us!") how sweet their breath is!" comparatively. Now why is not the breath of a young lady as sweet as that of a—little child who needs no more charcoal, trix or tooth-brush than a pig? and why is not her appetite always as good, and her teeth as clean? No reason can be given but that to which I have referred. Little children, cows, dogs and pigs digest all their food, and the waste passes off, leaving the system pure. The food of the young lady who lives on cakes, pastry, starch and butter, remains undigested, to derange all the digestive functions and secretions in just the proportion as these carbonaceous articles take the place of natural food.

THE city authorities of Boston have purchased several scores of iron bird's nests, which are to be attached to the trees in the parks. It is an English invention, used exclusively for sparrows in Great Britain. The nests are in a variety of forms, and are so constructed that the birds can hatch their young, be protected from the weather, and also be safe from all intruders. They are attached to the limb of a tree by a screw, and are ventilated from the bottom.

NEW YORK LETTER.

Rendition of Rossini's "Messe Solennelle" at the Academy of Music—Criticism by a Home Artist—Kellogg's Reputation—Genius of Rossini—The Score to be Brought to Pittsburgh, and Parts to be Rendered by Home Amateurs.

NEW YORK, May 1, 1869.

MESSRS. EDITORS: This is one of those rainy days, dark and dreary, which wash off the beauty of landscapes and cities, and make New York itself not much pleasanter a place than our dear dirty Pittsburgh, under similar circumstances. I ventured abroad this morning, but the wind turned my umbrella inside out, and blew my hat in such a ridiculous way that, tired at last of such tricks, I resolved to stay at the hotel. Having nothing else to do, I shall, if you please, give you, not a detailed criticism, but a general account of the first performance on this continent of Rossini's "Messe Solennelle."

The mere announcement had drawn to the Academy of Music one of the largest and most fashionable audiences that ever assembled in that temple of music. Whispers of great expectation were everywhere heard at the door. Some long faces could be seen inside, before the singers and musicians had made their appearance. It was evident from the respective room assigned to the chorus and orchestra that a great disproportion would exist between these two most important elements of the performance, and sure enough, while the orchestra, composed of about fifty pieces, did remarkably well under the able direction of Maretzek, the chorus recruited by Strakosh, that meanest of all managers, was an insult to the memory of Rossini and a shame to New York. All the old things of both sexes that we have ever seen and laughed at in Pittsburgh, connected with itinerant opera troupes, had congregated on the stage for the occasion—no more than forty-eight in number, centuries and centuries in years.

Owing to a predilection that Rossini has always shown for the contralto voice, the part of Mme. Testa was much more important than that of Miss Kellogg. Whether from annoyance at this fact, or from incapacity, and I incline toward the last motive, Miss Kellogg sang to very little advantage, and proved once more that her reputation rests on very unsubstantial grounds. As to Mme. Testa, whom you must remember as the impassionate Azucena of Trovatore, she won fairly a new claim to the admiration of the public by the fervent and truly artistic rendition of her part. Her voice was less tremulous and truer than I ever heard it before. She sang with real inspiration. The tenor, Boetti, and the basso, Antonucci, were well received, and justly so.

Of the work itself I have neither time nor room to say much. Moreover, before expressing a decisive opinion, I should either hear it again better rendered, or study it from the score. However, I can say now, that although superior to the Stabat as to religious character, it has not the completeness of the former work. The two fugues, which occur in the mass, and many other passages, must convince the world that Rossini not only possessed the gift of melody, but was also a master of musical science. Several trite phrases, whose sequence is guessed on the hint of a few notes, remind the hearer that the swan of Pezaro was quite advanced in years when religion came to him, or else make us regret that he did not so far overcome his proverbial indolence as to retouch his work and cancel a few common place passages, which will certainly be made use of by the unbelievers in the earnestness of his genius to detract much from the real worth of an admirable composition.

The vocal score I shall bring home with me, and I intend to have three or four pieces of the Mass sung at the concert to be given this month at East Liberty, and which will be repeated in Pittsburgh for the benefit of the Homeopathic Hospital.

C. T.

A Reminiscence of the Rebellion—The Hampton Roads Conference.

While in Marion, Smyth county, a few days ago, I had the pleasure of several lengthy chats with Hon. Fayette McMullin. Mr. McMullin says that since the war, he was one day in the President's house in Washington, conversing with Hon. F. Blair, Sr. Mr. Blair told him that soon after McMullin's "peace resolutions" had been introduced into the Confederate Congress, Mr. Lincoln being extremely anxious to bring about a peace, honorable alike to both sections of the country, and foreseeing, and wishing to avoid, the political consequences of the military subjugation of the South, sent him (Mr. Blair) to Richmond to confer with Mr. Davis and learn what arrangement of the difficulties could be made. He was passed through the lines of the contending armies and conducted to Mr. Davis' house in Richmond. After a long conversation with Mr. Davis and other prominent gentlemen for whom Mr. Davis sent, and for whom Mr. Blair inquired, Mr. Davis said that he had no proposition to make. Mr. Blair then proposed that General Lee's army be marched into Mexico against the French; that General Grant would follow and support the movement; that the united armies would drive out Maximilian; and then the Southern States should name their own terms of reconstruction, everything short of independence being guaranteed. At Mr. Davis' request this proposition was made in writing, and, after some consultation and reflection, was signed and accepted by him. Mr. Blair returned to Washington, and Mr. Lincoln was highly delighted with the success of the negotiation. It was in the hope of consummating this arrangement that Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Seward met the "Peace Commissioners," Hons. Stephens, Hunter and Campbell, at Fortress Monroe; but there, to Mr. Lincoln's chagrin, the Committee declared that they had been instructed to insist upon the independence of the South, and would listen to no other proposal. And thus the whole affair came to a "most lame and impotent conclusion."—Cor. Wheeling Register.

"PRISONER, you are charged with begging on the public street on Sunday, on the pretense that you were suffering from a grievous wound." "Well, it is all true." "Why didn't you show the wound to the police, then, when they asked to see it?" "I couldn't, your honor. My wound is closed on Sundays."

THE potatoo speculators of the West are reported to be suffering from their attempts to obtain extravagant prices by holding back their crops. The Michigan papers assert that the farmers in that State are obliged to sell for fifteen cents a bushel potatoes for which last fall they refused one and a half dollars.

Co-operative House Building.

The plan of Mrs. Phelps for colonizing the poor sewing women of Boston in the suburbs of that city, where they can have houses, gardens, fresh air, and a chance for healthy life, is by no means an original one, save in its application to the special class which this philanthropist represents. State aid is invoked to begin the work, but we do not understand that anything more than a beginning and a demonstration of the practicability of the scheme is desired at the hands of the State. Private benevolence and the good will of capitalists is expected to carry on the work of establishing these homes when once begun. A similar movement in favor of workingmen has been going on for years in Europe, and, as one of its results, we find in the London News an account of an enterprise near London, which is very like Mrs. Phelp's scheme in some of its features. The "Suburban Village and General Dwelling Company," on the 30th of March, laid a memorial stone in their first village, which is to be built at Loughborough Park, Brixton. The houses are to be put up on an estate of twenty-four acres, near which run four railways, with cheap trains for working people. The company is organized on the limited liability principle, for the purpose of building houses in healthy suburbs for the accomodation of the many thousands of the industrial classes in large cities and towns who are suffering from the evil of overcrowding. The houses, when built, are to be allotted to shareholders, whose rents are in a given number of years to defray the cost of the dwellings, which will then become their own property. The rents thus imposed are not to exceed those now paid for houses of like size and character. The first village will contain 650 houses, each having a garden, arranged with a view to domestic comfort and sanitary requirements; provision will be made for schools, a lecture hall and reading rooms. About 300 houses on the estate have already been chosen or applied for by clerks and artisans, who are prepared to purchase them upon the company's terms and to inhabit them as soon as ready.—Springfield Republican.

FEW players have the remotest conception of the vast amount of labor expended upon a single piano; of the hundreds of blocks, screws, pins, wedges, springs, and hammers called into requisition; of the piles of timber, fathoms of wire, the gallons of glue, and the hides of leather employed by the building thereof, yea, building, for the instrument must pass through many hands ere it attains completion. Often have I watched the progress of one from the laying of the base block till the last action—till the finishing touch. Some idea of the prodigious tension to be provided for may be gathered from the fact, stated on the authority of a London maker, that in a grand piano forte of only six octaves, the pull upon the strings is at least equal to the weight of a stone and a half.

THE Toronto Globe states that Charles McKewen is the oldest Mason in Canada, and probably the oldest in the world. He was born in 1757, made a Mason in Lodge 404, Ballenderry, county of Antrim, Ireland, in the year 1776, consequently he has been 93 years a Mason. He is now a member of St. John's Lodge No. 68, A. F. & A. M., Ingersoll, Ontario. A gentleman who visited Mr. McKewen a few days since, says he found him in good health, and he said that he never had better health in his life. His mind is clear and his memory good regarding the past, especially as regards Masonic landmarks.

THE REASON WHY

Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher is the best. It is computed that a man's system undergoes three times a year, that is every four months, a radical and thorough change, that is, that at the end of that time nothing remains in the system of the material of which it was composed before that time. The eliminating organs carry out the worn-out and used-up material, and new matter is made to take its place and carry on the workings of the human organism. The cost of four months treatment in this way would not at the outside be more than ten dollars, and frequently the functions of life have an activity and vigor imparted sufficient to renew them by the use of one bottle, costing only one dollar. No organ of the body but will be benefitted by such a process. The liver, the stomach, the kidneys, the skin, the lungs, are all, as it were, made over again by the impetus given to the stomach and digestive system—old and prostrated people whose systems had begun to languish and decay, have been restored by DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER to youthful health and vigor. Especially is this medicine suitable at this season of the year, when the dormant powers of life, like all the rest of nature are emerging from the chilling and torpid state usual to the cold and wintry months. We know very well that all advertised medicines are apt to be regarded as useless and nugatory, but with DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER we feel perfectly secure in the promise that it must do good. Country merchants and those who supply others with needful things for their wants cannot confer a greater service than to keep a few bottles of this valuable medicine on their shelves to supply their wants. Dr. Keyser will take back every half dozen that remains unsold. It at the same time affords the merchant a good profit, and to those who need it, it is of more value than silver and gold, for what can be of more value to man than a medicine which carries health and life to the suffering invalid?

We earnestly entreat all who read this to try one bottle of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher if they need such a medicine, and we will guarantee satisfaction. In order, however, not to be disappointed, let them buy none but that which has Dr. Keyser's name over the cork and blown in the bottle, and in that way the Doctor will hold himself responsible for its results when the directions are closely followed.

COMMON SENSE

Rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthropic philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing, let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhoea, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from the derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. These celebrated STOMACH BITTERS have doubtless created as much sensation in the community for their remarkable cures as any other medicine extant. It is a fact that in the minds of many persons a prejudice exists against what are called patent medicines; but why should this prevent your resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Physicians prescribe it; why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it; their families; why should you reject it? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it is therefore worthy of the consideration of the afflicted. The BITTERS are pleasant to the taste, agreeable in their effects, and altogether valuable as a tonic or remedy for indigestion.

THE GREATEST DISCOVERY YET.

Stouffer's Patent Egg Preserver.

Will keep eggs in a perfect condition two years.
Eggs can't spoil while under the process.
It has been used by the patentee twelve years and never failed.
Eggs put up by this process during the summer have been sold in the cities the following winter at five times their original cost!
One man can put up and send to market $20,000 worth of eggs in less than six months, and more than double his money.
Is equally applicable to hot or cold climates, is easily understood, and costs about ½ a cent per dozen.
Thousands have tested the eggs, and certify that they are perfect.
The process is guaranteed to be a perfect "Egg Preserver."
The Patent has 16 years to run.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, May 4, 1869.

Government bonds were less active today and somewhat lower, in consequence of the greater activity in money, for which seven per cent. gold interest has been paid to-day. Although at present price of gold and exchange it pays to ship bonds to Europe in place of exchange, few can do it since the telegraph expenses are too great on small amounts.

Gold was very strong this morning at 136¼, from which it declined to 135⅝ and closed dull and weak. There is hardly any doubt but that the cliques will manage to get the Government one million dollars of gold as cheap as possible, and then run up the market again.

Stocks were dull, weak and lower, for the entire list.

Money is easier and business quiet.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 135¾; Silver, 127; Eighty-one's, 118⅞; Five Twenties, 1862, 118⅜; do 1864, 113⅜; do 1865, 115⅝; do 1865, Consols, 116⅝; do 1867, 116⅝; do 1868, 116½; Ten Forties, 108¼; New York Central, 176¾; Erie, —; Reading, 95⅞; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 44; Ohio & Mississippi, 32¾; Michigan Southern, 105¼; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 92¼; Chicago & Rock Island, 36½; Chicago & North Western, 85½; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 98½; Adams Express Company, 61; Merchants Union Express, 15½; Pacific Mail, 92¾; Western Union Telegraph Company, 43; Gregory, 2,75; Quartz Hill, 1,25; Corydon, —; Smith & Parmlee, 2,60; W. [By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 4.

Money active and sharp at 7 per cent., with exceptional transaction at coin interest. This has occasioned yielding in prices on exchange.—Many prominent bulls took advantage of the recent rise to sell largely, are not lending their money freely, and the carrying rate of gold having advanced to 10 per cent., the large owners of gold have withdrawn it from the market, which necessitates calling in of heavy amount loans from stock brokers. Herein lies the explanation of present activity in money. Sterling heavy at 9@9¼c, mainly former. It is reported that one prime Banking firm will ship one million in bonds weakened toward close of to-day, and price opened at 36¼, and closed at 35¾. The rates paid for carrying were 5@10 per cent. on 1-62 per day. Clearances, $128,000,000. Exports, $96,000.

Governments are less active and lower under an increased demand for money and lower quotations from London. The prices here and at London are now about equalized, and consequently foreigners are not large buyers. The investment movement is healthy bnt without feature. The small bonds are selling below the large ones, as there is less buying for reinvestment of interest. The market closed steady. Coupons, '81, 118⅝@119; do. '62, 118½@118¾; do. '64, 113⅜@114; do. '65, 115¼@115⅝; do. new, 116⅛@116⅜; do. '67, 116½@116⅝; do. '68, 116⅝@116¾; 10-40s, 108¼@108⅜.

In State bonds, Tennessees are pressed for sale. Virginia and Louisiana lower. North Carolinas and Missouris steady. Missouris, 88¼@89; Old Tennessee, 67¼@67½; New do, 65¾@66; North Carolinas, new, 54⅜@55; Virginias, 62@62½; Louisiana Levee Sixes, 69¾@70. A bearish temper still prevails in the stock market. Some of the recent bull cliques are working to break down the market, in order to buy in at lower figures, preparatory to a new advance movement. Among the weaker during the morning were the North Western, St. Paul, New York Central and Fort Wayne, the latter declining 3¼ per cent., while the whole market was ½@2 per cent. lower. From this there was a partial recovery. In the afternoon the market was again heavy and lower, and the fall on the day was very marked on some of the leading railroad shares, New York Central falling 2 per cent., Hudson 2, Fort Wayne 4½, Michigan Southern 1½, Lake Shore 1 and Rock Island 2, with an average decline on the rest of ¼@¾ per cent. The market closed unsettled and weak.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, May 4, 1869.

The markets, in a general way, are moderately active, though there is room for improvement. We can report a steady local demand for most of the leading articles and a fair volume of business in the aggregate, while as far as values are concerned, there are no important changes.

APPLES—Sales at $5@8 per bbl, as to quality.

APPLE BUTTER—90@$1 per gallon.

BUTTER—Is scarce and with a good demand, the market is stronger with sales of good to choice at 38@42.

BEANS—Dull at $3@3,25.

CHEESE—Sales of new Western Reserue at 15@20, as to quality and New York Goshen at 24@25.

CARBON OIL—Is quoted in a jobbing way at 29@30.

CORNMEAL—Dull, at $1,50@1.75 per cwt.

DRIED FRUIT—Demand light and prices unchanged. Peaches, 14 for quarters, and 18@19 for halves. Apples, 13@15.

EGGS—In good supply but unchanged, at 16@17.

FEATHERS—A shade firmer, and we now quote live geese feathers at 80 to the trade, and the usual advance in a retail way.

FLOUR—The market is firmer with a slightly improved demand, while prices, as yet, are not quotably higher. Sales of Spring Wheat at $6,50@7, and Winter Wheat at $7,50@8. Rye Flour, $7@7,25.

GRAIN—Sales No. 1 Spring at $1,44, and No. 1 Winter at $1,50. Oats in better supply, but the market is firm and dealers expect prices to rule high, until the new crop is ready; may be quoted at 73@75 by the car load, and 78@80 in store. Corn is quiet and in better supply but unchanged; 76@80, on wharf and track, for mixed to prime Yellow. Rye is quoted at $1,40@1,43. Little or nothing doing in Barley.

HAY—Baled continues to arrive freely and the market is dull but unchanged; we continue to quote, on wharf, at $25@30, for fair to strictly prime Timothy.

HEMP—Sales at $2,15.

HOMINY—$5,75@6 per bbl.

LARD OIL—Sales No. 1 Extra at $1,52@1,53. and No. 2 at $1,23@1.25.

SEEDS—Clover Seed is quoted at $9@9,50. Timothy is very scarce and there seems to be no established price, and the same is true of Flaxseed.

SALT—May be quoted at $1,83@1,85 by the car load, and $1,95@2 for small lots in store.

TALLOW—Is quoted at 10½@10⅝, for rendered, and but little doing.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, May 4, 1869.

The oil trade was, if anything, a little stronger to-day, occasioned mainly by a slightly improved demand for May, and while this particular delivery was higher the later months, as yet, have undergone no quotable change. There was this difference between to-day and yesterday, bids were entertained and refusals asked, which yesterday were offered without attracting any attention, and it is usually the case, that when one month advances the later months are more or less affected, as it is calculated to infuse a stronger feeling, though possibly there may, for the time being, be no advance. As will be seen, however, the sales were light, and as regards prices, the only essential change apparent, as yet, is for the last half of May.

CRUDE—The Crude market, compared with yesterday, has undergone no quotable change, and presents no new characteristics worthy of special notice. Sale 500 bbls, spot, at 14½; and 1,000, seller, this month, at same figure. Forty to forty-five gravity might command a quarter more.

REFINED—There was some little excitement in the Refined market to-day, occasioned by an increased demand and advanced prices for the last half of May, but it did not amount to much. The sales reported were as follows:

500 bbls last half July	34½
1,000 each May to September	34½
2,000 seller 20 days	33
500 last half May	33½
500 last half May	33¾

Live Stock Markets.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 4.—Beef Cattle; receipts 337 head; prices advanced ¼c per pound, extra $13,00@13,50, first quality $12,00@12,50, second quality, $11,00@11,75, and third quality $10,00@10,50. Sheep and Lambs—receipts, 1,688 head; no material change in price, but good sheep brought good prices, for ordinary grades low sales at 4@9½c per lb.; spring Lambs 8@9c.

CHICAGO, May 4.—Hogs dull and drooping at $8,50@9,20 for common to choice. Beef cattle dull at $5,00@6,00 for butchers' cows and steers, $6,40@6,62½ for light fleshy steers, and $7,00@7,75 for good to extra prime beeves.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, May 4.—There is a feeling of inertia and depression existing in this department of trade. The Amoskeag bleached muslins were reduced by jobbers to day to 15c, which is the most important change noticed; the Blackstone selling at 15½c, being advanced ½c. There have been rumors about failures yesterday and to-day, but the only one that can be safely mentioned is that of H. E. Dibblee & Co., of Broadway.

MORNING DRESSES.

White dresses are becoming more and more fashionable for summer morning toilettes, and a new method of trimming them has been introduced this season which deserves passing notice. Upon white, clear organdie, narrow cross cut folds of fine linen cambric are laid and stitched with the sewing machine through the centre, a space between each fold. There are seven in a series round the bottom of the skirt, which is gored front and sides, and five upon the basque and sleeves. An under-skirt of book muslin is shaped exactly like the organdie skirt to wear with it, and is trimmed with seven folds of linen cambric like it. The entire costume, including the under-skirt and sack, trimmed with linen bands to match, is thirty-six dollars. The effect of this trimming must be seen to be appreciated; it looks like folds of white satin, and has the advantage of washing perfectly and ironing without impairing its beauty. Very elegant organdie dresses are profusely trimmed with fluted frills, puffings, insertions and edgings of Valenciennes. A new style has a low, square yoke, to which a small Watteau is attached at the back for an over-skirt and pannier. It is finished with frills and puffs to match the trained skirt, and has bows and streamers of narrow pink ribbons in the centre of the wide box-pleating at the back. Another style has an upper skirt very bouffant, and a short sack or basque open upon the back, cut in points edged with wide valenciennes and united by bows, and ends of pink ribbon. A bright China pink and China blue are just now very fashionable colors, particularly in conjunction with a soft pearl grey or dove color. Last season one of the ladies' furnishing houses here made a feature of ladies' gored wrappers, well-cut and neatly made, for four dollars and a half each. This season they sell them for four dollars, and are disposing of immense quantities. They are finished with a little chintz bordering stitched on, and supplied with belt and pockets. Some fashionable dressmakers charge seven dollars for making a good wrapper with no more work than this, so that a price which really little more than pays for labor and material is considered wonderfully cheap. The demand for these wrappers shows what might be expected if ladies' ready-made garments could be uniformly obtained at reasonable prices. At the establishment where these are for sale, there are fine cambric and excellent cotton under skirts, tucked and frilled, from $1,75 to $4 each and a great variety of Holland and white linen dresses for children from $1,50 to $5 each, very prettily made and trimmed. These are a real boon to mothers. Linen cambrics are among the coolest and prettiest morning dresses. The trimming this season for white liners consists of narrow fluted ruffles of the same material, and bands of plain cambric in the color of the sprig, for those printed in colors. Narrow ruffles of the same gathered and edged with cluny lace are also very pretty.

THE BASQUINE FICHU.

This is the newest silk cloak of the season, if it can be called a cloak, as intended to win regard and admiration by the multiform uses to which it can be put. Cloaks are so little required now, that a great deal of ingenuity is exercised in adapting them to additional purposes, and the basquine fichu is undoubtedly the most successful one which has been attempted. It consists of an over-skirt, confined by a belt and pelerine cape; no sleeves. The over-skirt is rather short, full upon the back, and caught up with large rosettes and ends upon the sides; sometimes upon the back, also, entirely to the waist. Both skirt and cape are edged with lace or rich fringe. The basquine fichu can be worn to complete a suit, or with a colored dress, or the over-skirt can be worn with a white dress, and the cape as an outdoor finish to muslin and grenadine dresses in summer. Who would not own so useful a garment?

THE "WATTEAU"

Is another quite new and very stylish black silk cloak, which can also be worn as an overdress. The upper part of the body is plain, and trimmed with rich lace; to form a Pompadour two breadths are pleated into the back, and the skirt is caught up nearly to the waist, dividing it into two long puffs, which are pleated into the plain basquine fronts. This cloak is elegantly trimmed with lace and puffing of silk. It forms a very handsome overdress to white muslin or an upper dress to suit. A great variety of little black silk mantillas have made their appearance, some forming scarfs, some little pelerine capes with lappets, belted on and ornamented with sash, bows and ends. Some are trimmed with fringe and some with lace, but the most of them with fluted ruffles or pleatings of the same. This method of trimming silks and other goods with the same material is very much liked; it preserves harmony in the costume, is less expensive, and wears uniformly with the body of the garment. Muslin and other scarfs will have a greater vogue this season, en suite with the dress, and are very pretty and graceful, especially with white striped organdies. Striped grenadines also make pretty scarfs to wear with plain gray or fawn-colored tissues.

COSTUMES IN BLACK GRENADINE.

The new costumes in black grenadine consists of a trained dress trimmed with a flounce bound with green, or corn-colored silk or satin; an over-skirt very bouffant also ruffled to match; a sash which is a wilderness of loops, square bows and ends, and a Marie Antoinette cape, which can be worn or not, at pleasure. There is no lining in these dresses, but they are worn over a low-neck black silk slip, and are ornamented with ruffles and pipings of silk or satin upon the waist. A hundred dollars is the price ready-made, not including the black silk slip. Short walking dresses of black grenadine are a novelty; they are always trimmed with ruffles of the same. China Crepe, trimmed with satin, is one of the most elegant materials we have this season for walking suits and costumes. It is not common at all, and can only be obtained at private French importing houses, such as Mme. Natalie Tilnans, who makes a point of bringing out a few rare fabrics, Toussore and Japanese silks, satin cloths, white foulard Crepe de Chine and gazede chambery in choice shades and qualities. These goods form a complete contrast to the mass of common fabrics with which the market is deluged.

LENGTH OF SKIRTS.

What are called demi-trains have succeeded to the enormously long skirts worn last winter, and are much better suited to thin materials. "Round" skirts are also fashionable, that is to say, skirts that just clear the ground and are the same length all the way round. These with the skirts of a moderate walking length make a sufficient variety and ought to suit every taste. The question is often asked whether short skirts are gored plain all round. They are not. They are gored in front and at the sides, but gathered full in the back the same as long skirts. The new hooped skirts are very nice and very much liked, they are only from seventy to eighty inches round the bottom, and prevent the clothes from clinging, without expanding them to an ungraceful size. They are most sensible and economical and fully meet all requirements.

NECK-TIES.

There are four new neck-ties, one, the "Sorosis," made of satin edged with lace; another, the "Panier," forming a sort of semi-circular puff, edged with fringe; a third, the "Sailor's Cravat," a silk neck-tie, knotted loosely; and a fourth, the "Irma," which is a square bow of striped ribbon, with fringed ends.

NEW LINEN COLLARS AND CUFFS.

New linen sets have small round collars edged with a narrow fluted ruffle,—the cuffs are quite narrow at the wrist and finished with ruffles to match; they are seventy-five cents the set. Striped collars and cuffs are still in vogue, and will be used for travelling and country morning wear.

BONNETS.

Among later styles in bonnets is one of China blue crape arranged in a very high puff and trimmed with a small blue feather, a pink rose and white aigrette, tipped with black. Lappets of crape edged with blonde and united together with a rose and feather tip formed the bridles. Another very pretty bonnet was composed of flutings of white chip edged with narrow real black lace. It was trimmed with field flowers and with a bow of black lace which fell over the chignon. Lappets of black lace fastened with a bunch of field flowers formed the necklace. The "Versailles" is the latest in round hats; it has a high crown, is trimmed with a rich plume of feathers forming an aigrette and is worn very forward upon the head, and is considered very distingue. The "Shepherdess" hats with wide indented brims will be the style for home and country wear. Drawn hats and bonnets of book muslin are made for travelling, for children and also for adults; they cost from three to five dollars.

THE "COQUETTE."

This is a new fan parasol which has been for some time before the public, but only this season obtained a vogue. It is now for the first time made in a great variety of styles and at comparatively reasonable prices, and may therefore win its way to popular favor. The Coquette is very pretty and very appropriately named; every motion is piquant, and an invitation to a flirtation. It is the most convenient of parasols, and by touching a slide becomes the most graceful of fans. It can be used also as a screen, and will be found especially useful for a pic-nic, a matinee or a drawing-room tete a tete. The popular styles are composed of fluted silk in every variety of color, trimmed with black lace, and edged with rich knotted fringe the shade of the silk, and have handsome carved handles. The price is from seven to ten dollars, except when real lace is used, and then of course they cost more.

JENNIE JUNE.

The National Sunday School Convention.

The first National Convention of the friends of Sunday schools in the United States was held in New York City, in 1832, and the second in Philadelphia, in 1859. The third National Sunday School Convention was held a few days ago in the city of Newark, N. J. On the third day resolutions were adopted, embodying the views of the Convention. The Sunday school is approved, not only as a medium of instruction, but as a valuable auxiliary to the household study of God's Word, and as supplementary of home instruction, and the conviction is expressed that these different departments of Bible instruction are and ought to be entirely harmonious and mutually helpful.

The Convention also expressed its approbation of Mission Sunday schools; of State, county, town and district Sunday school Conventions, and of normal colleges for the training of Sunday school teachers. The Convention also earnestly recommended that children should always be warned against the evils of intemperance, and taught the practice of total abstinence. The Enrolment Committee reported that 545 delegates had registered their names, representing 29 States, as well as England, Canada, Egypt, and Africa. The Convention, on April 30th, adjourned to meet in Indianapolis in 1872.

THE RUSSIAN VAPOR BATH which has been claimed to be an infallible cure for hydrophobia, has recently been tried in Chicago and found to be ineffectual. The patient was hand cuffed and placed in an air-tight closet and the steam introduced from beneath. The heat was gradually increased, and in five minutes the temperature of 125 degrees Farenheit was reached. At this point the patient fell on the floor and his struggles ceased. The heat was further increased to 135 degrees and then shut off. The inanimate patient was next removed to an adjoining room, cold water was thrown on his face, and although showing symptoms of revival, in about ten minutes he expired. It is stated that, before death, signs of hydrophobia again became manifest, and, therefore, it may reasonably be concluded that this terrible disease cannot always be cured by the Russian Vapor Bath.

A CORRESPONDENT of the New Bedford Mercury writes from Sitka concerning the manners of the inhabitants, that the children amuse themselves by sliding with bare feet on the ice, clad in a fragment of blanket; the elders keep dogs and beat their wives; the women paint their faces to save the trouble of washing; and when one dies they build a cob-house of sticks, just large enough to hold a body, put it inside and set fire to it, and burn it up, all hands sitting around in a circle, the women howling and the men beating time with big sticks.

AT LA CROSSE, Wisconsin, the other day, Ed. Patton, a telegraph operator, jumped twelve feet six inches at one standing jump, and Mr. Burke, of the express office, jumped twelve feet five inches. This is the best jumping ever done there, except Oscar Wissinger's jump of 1859, when he repeatedly jumped thirteen feet, and once on a wager thirteen feet and one inch.

TO THE PUBLIC.
The "Grand Army of the Republic" is composed of Soldiers of the Union who served in the late Rebellion. The Private Soldier is the peer of the highest officer. The objects of the organization are charitable, benevolent, just, social and patriotic, and should command the respect of all good citizens.
To extend a helping hand to the widows whose husbands and sons were our comrades, many of whom lie buried on the thousands of battle fields or in the cemeteries of the land, and to assist in the support of crippled soldiers, and the education of the soldiers' orphans, we respectfully ask the patronage of a generous public.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished in the city the six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $8 per annum: 3 mos., $2

The weather yesterday was quite an agreeable change from that of the previous two or three days.

No Quorum.—A meeting of the Board of Health was to have been held yesterday afternoon, but for want of a quorum no business was transacted.

Work commenced yesterday on the northern tower of the Cathedral, which is to be finished in the style of the one on the south side.

Recovering.—We are pleased to note the fact that Chief Engineer Jas. C. Crow, of Allegheny, is recovering and will probably be about in a short time.

Leisure Hours for May has been laid on our table. It is a splendid number and all our people should take pride in such a home serial.

Stock Sale.—The following stock was sold last evening on second floor of Commercial Sales Rooms, 106 Smithfield street, by A. McIlwaine, auctioneer:

Exchange National Bank.....$70.22

Assault and Battery.—Mary Cluman made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Frank McMahon with assault and battery. She alleges that he struck her with a club on the arm. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Greenbacks Stolen.—A. J. Blain charges Wm. Ntre with stealing a five dollar greenback from him yesterday. Alderman McMasters issued a warrant for the arrest of Ntre for the alleged stealing of the note.

Completion.—The contractor has finished paving Townsend street, and the work was inspected by the Street Commissioners and City Engineer, yesterday, and found to be in accordance with the specifications.

Dangerous.—James C. Brown alleges that Jerry Smith, one of the Allegheny police, pointed a pistol at him yesterday in a threatening manner, of course without provocation. Alderman McMasters upon the information of Brown issued a warrant for the arrest of the accused.

Soldiers' Orphans' Home.—At a meeting of the Corporators of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, Monday, the annual reports were read and the following officers elected for the current year: Chas. Knap, President; Jas. P. Barr, Vice President; Treasurer, G. W. Cass; Secretary, R. I. Grace.

At the Annual Election of the Sharpsburg and Lawrenceville Bridge Company, held on Monday, May 3d, the following officers were elected: President—James C. Lewis. Directors—James Saint, C. B. Herron, W. M. Darlington, Robert Dalzell, Wilson Heary, and Geo. A. Chalfant.

Planing Mill Destroyed.—Tuesday morning about nine o'clock, the extensive planing mill and lumber yard of Zeigler, Baker & Co., in Ludwick, adjoining Greensburg, in Westmoreland county, was destroyed by fire, involving a loss of $12,000, on which there is $3,000 insurance.

Dr. Gleason's Lectures, at Lafayette Hall, are splendidly illustrated with the finest Cabinet of Manikin models, &c., ever exhibited in this city, and his admirable lectures increase in interest every evening. He will lecture this evening on "The Lungs, Causes and Cure of Weak Lungs." &c.

Child Lost—Yesterday afternoon a little boy, aged about four years, son of Mr. Wm. Kettle, residing on Middle street, Allegheny, strayed away from home. His parents are very much distressed at his absence, and any information of him left at the Allegheny Mayors office will be gratefully received.

Stable Burned.—The alarm of fire sounded from Box No. 2, last evening, about six o'clock, was occasioned by the discovery of a fire in a stable on Liberty street, opposite Hare's Hotel. The stable, together with its contents, a lot of hay and oats, was destroyed. We did not learn the name of the owner.

Rumor.—It is currently reported that the mad-dog editor of the Post has an interest in a patent muzzle and dog collar, and hence his frantic efforts to turn an honest penny out of the "tempest in a tea pot," which he has thus far succeeded in raising on the hydrophobia question. Let him have a button for his enterprise, and one of his own making.

Streets Repaired.—The work of repairing Second avenue, between Try street and the Birmingham bridge, commenced yesterday and, we are informed, will be continued until the street is in good condition. The paving on Fifth avenue, from Smithfield to Grant streets, is also undergoing repairs, and the street scrapers are at work on several of the principal avenues.

Half Dime Music.—We have received from Jno. W. Pittock, opposite the Custom House, a number of sheets of the popular half dime music. We have the guarantee of skilled musicians and vocalists that the five cent music is as correct and as good as any sold at ten times the price. For pupils no music is better, and the only possible objection to its introduction to the drawing room is that it is so cheap.

Sheep Shearing Festival.—The fourth annual Shearing Festival will be held at the house of John Gilfillan, Upper St. Clair township, old Washington road-eight miles from Pittsburgh, on Thurs, day, May 20th. Dinner for all, candidates not excepted. All kinds of agricultural implements will be on exhibition, and a test of ploughs will take place. A free trial and fair play will be given to all who compete.

D&W H. H. MURRY, President.

That well known gentleman and Notary Public, William F. Robb, Esq., in addition to his extensive notorial business, has now made arrangements by which he is in immediate correspondence with the Department of State, at Washington, and can procure passports, on the shortest possible notice, for persons about to travel abroad. Although these documents are not as often required as formerly, they are, in many cases, such as a trip in the States of the Church, or a resident in any foreign city, quite indispensible. Mr. Robb's office is at 149 Fourth avenue.

Stockholders' Meeting.—The stockholders of the Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph Company held their annual meeting yesterday, in Burke's building, Fourth street. The annual reports were read showing an encouraging condition of the Company's affairs, after which the annual election was held, resulting as follows: President—Geo. H. Thurston, of Pittsburgh; Directors—John W. Ellis, of Cincinnati, Robt. J. Anderson, Wm. Varnum, Edward Jay Allen, James L. Shaw, and C. B. M. Smith, of Pittsburgh.

THE COURTS

United States Court—Hon. Wilson McCandless.

Court met at ten o'clock Tuesday morning.

In the case of Blatchford et al vs. The Susquehanna and Wyoming Valley Railroad and Coal Company; argued at Philadelphia last week, the Court directed:

"Let complainants' counsel draw a decree that an order shall issue for the sale of all the property mentioned in the mortgage, but not for the real estate purchased in 1864, called the Vatterlein estate, which decree is to be final, unless respondents pay into court, within one month, the interest due on the mortgage to this date, together with the costs, then this bill to be dismissed. The clerk will notify the parties."

The list of grand jurors was then called, and the Court designated Dr. W. F. Logan, of Williamsport, as foreman. After receiving the charge of the Court the Grand Jury retired to their room. True bills were found against Silas M. Crispin, indicted for carrying on the business of retail liquor dealer without license, and against Wm. Campbell, Jacob Zimmerman, William Forkner and Joseph Zimmerman, jointly indicted for manufacturing without paying special tax.

In the case of the United States vs. Silas M. Crispin, of Washington county, defendant plead guilty. The Court sentenced him to pay a fine of $10 and the special tax of $25 under the first count of indictment; $10 special tax under the second count, and to sixty days imprisonment in the Washington county jail, besides the costs of prosecution. The sentence on the third count was suspended.

The United States vs. Ornam Osborne et al., action on a refiners' bond, was continued for trial at the July term at Erie.

There being no further business ready, Court adjourned until Wednesday morning, at ten o'clock.

District Court—Judge Kirkpatrick.

TUESDAY, May 4.—On motion of A. M. Brown, Esq., John Shannon was duly admitted to practice in this Court.

The cases of Clayton vs. McGrew and McGrew vs. Clayton were taken up and tried together. They are actions for tresspass to recover damages. On trial.

That Silverware Robbery.

Our readers will remember that some time since the dwelling of Mr. John McGinnis, in the Fifth ward, Allegheny, was entered and a quantity of valuable silverware taken. The thieves escaped at the time, although one or two suspected parties were arrested. Subsequent developments, however, have probably revealed the depredators, who are now in custody.

We noticed yesterday the arrest of William Barnes, and his implication in the robbery of Stewart's notion store, in the First ward. From several remarks made in conversation, Chief Bowden was led to suspect Barnes of being one of the silverware thieves. This clue was followed out, and resulted in the arrest of James Henderson, a young man and companion of Barnes. Henderson, when taken to the Mayor's office, confessed to the robbery, and at once implicated Barnes in the operation. He further stated that a portion of the goods had been concealed not far from the house and indicated the place. An examination of the spot resulted in the discovery of the silver castor. The police are endeavoring to procure the remaining articles, but have not yet succeeded. From the conversation between the two prisoners in the lock up it is evident they were together in robbing Stewart's store, and have been companions in crime for some time past. They were committed to jail for a further hearing on Monday next.

Row at a Ball.

On Monday evening a ball was given at Lutz and Walz's Hall, Chestnut street, Seventh ward, Allegheny. The first part of the entertainment passed off pleasantly enough, but a short time before its close two of the male attendants got into a fight and created considerable excitement. Several spectators became somewhat anxious for a pugilistic encounter, and in a short time this spirit manifested itself in a row of pretty fair proportions. Officer Fred Faber, of the Allegheny police, who was on duty at the place, was knocked down and beaten by some ten of the fighters, but managed to escape serious injury. Yesterday morning he lodged information against five of his assailants respectively, John Dreicher, Robert Knabe, Louis Bluncket, C. Blurdt, and August Miller, for aggravated assault and battery. The parties were all arrested, but waived a hearing and gave bail for Court.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Annual Meeting of the School Boards of the Consolidated City—Election of a Superintendent of City Schools—Mr. Luckey Re-Elected by a Unanimous Vote.

The annual meeting of the School Directors of the consolidated city was held at Grant school house, Third ward, at one o'clock yesterday, (Tuesday) May 4th, 1869, for the purpose of electing a City Superintendent for the ensuing year.

There was a full attendance, all the Wards being represented.

On motion of Thomas Ewing, Esq., the meeting organized by calling Hon. J. P. Sterrett to the chair, and electing John A. Sergeant Secretary.

After the Secretary had called the roll, the Chairman stated the object of the meeting, and announced that the meeting was ready to transact the business for which it had met.

Mr. Harrison nominated Prof. George J. Luckey, the present incumbent.

On motion, the nominations closed.

Mr. Harrison moved that Mr. Lucky be elected by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Ewing suggested that the law required a certificate of the number of votes received by the candidate elected.

The list of Directors was then called over by the Secretary, and all present voting for Mr. Lucky, he was declared unanimously elected.

The Chairman stated that the next business in order was the fixing of the salary of the Superintendent.

Mr. Sims moved that the salary be fixed at $2.500.

Mr. Dravo moved to amend by making it $2,200.

Mr. Craig moved to further amend by making the salary $3,000.

A vote being taken on Mr. Craig's amendment, and the Chair being unable to decide, a division was called, and the vote stood 37 for and 38 against, so the amendment was lost.

Mr. McMasters then moved that a vote be taken on Mr. Sims' motion to fix the salary at $2,500,

The question was called and decided in the affirmative, fixing the salary at $2,500.

Mr. Ewing stated that as he understood the law creating the office of a City Superintendent, the convention electing the officer should also make rules and regulations for the government of that officer. And in order to comply with this requirement, he moved that the rules adopted by the former convention remain in force for the ensuing three years.

Mr. McMasters thought the rules should not be extended for a longer period than one year, for the reason that they might not be applicable to the case one year hence.

Reading of the rules was called for, and the Chairman proceeded to read them, at the conclusion of which Mr. Ewing's motion was adopted.

On motion adjourned.

The County Superintendency—Mr. A. T. Douthett Elected—Fixing of the Salary—The Normal School Question—Committee Appointed.

The Directors of the various wards in Allegheny city, together with those from all the townships and boroughs of the County, assembled at City Hall, Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of electing a Superintendent of the County Common Schools, for the ensuing term of three years, as prescribed by law.

The meeting was organized at one o'clock, when F. C. Negley, Esq. was chosen to preside, with Rev. Braddock as Vice President and Messrs. W. G. Fulton and J. W. Enlon Secretaries.

A motion was made to proceed to the election of a Superintendent.

It was suggested that the salary to be attached to the office should first be fixed. The suggestion was not acted upon, and the original motion prevailed.

Messrs. A. T. Douthett, Thos. A. Neal, and Thos. E. Wakeham were nominated.

The Directors voted viva voce, each replying to his name when called out by the Secretary, with the following result: Douthett, 108; Neal, 32; Wakeham, 12.

Mr. Douthett, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was accordingly declared elected.

The Chairman stated that the next business in order would be the fixing of the salary.

A Director moved that the salary be fixed at $2,000 per year, the same as formerly paid.

Amendments fixing it at $1,500 and $2,500 were made but voted down, and the original motion finally adopted.

Mr. Douthett, in response to calls, appeared on the platform and returned his thanks to the Directors for the renewed evidence of their confidence and esteem with which he had been honored. In regard to a remark made during the discussion relative to the salary, he stated he had always endeavored faithfully and conscientiously to discharge the duties of the office of County Superintendent during the nine years which he had filled the position. There were five hundred and fifteen schools to be visited, and though he had travelled four thousand miles during the past year, and made every effort, yet some of them had not been visited. He pledged himself to continue in the future as in the past to devote his whole time to the work, and endeavor by every possible means to advance the interests of Common Schools throughout the county.

The meeting then adjourned.

RE-CONVENED.

Before the Directors had left the hall, they were reassembled, at the suggestion of one of their number, to take some action in regard to the proposed establishment of a Normal School in the county. Superintendent Douthett urged the necessity of such an institution, and the importance of taking some steps in the matter at once. He said the project of establishing such a School under the patronage of Allegheny, Beaver and Butler counties, had been long considered, but no definite action had as yet been taken. Col. Espy had offered ten acres of land and $5000 cash to the enterprise, and Col. Kelley had offered ten acres of land at Wilkensburg. All that was needed now was sufficient money to construct a building; probably $32,000 would be enough for this purpose. He spoke at some length in favor of this movement, and urged immediate action.

On motion, the Chairman of the meeting, Mr. F. C. Negley, was instructed to appoint a committee of ten to act in conjunction with himself in reference to the matter, and report at a future meeting. The members of this committee will be announced as soon as appointed.

Adjourned.

Exciting Runaway.

Last evening two horses attached to a carriage took fright on Ohio street, Allegheny, and dashed up the street, colliding with a passenger car and tearing a wheel off the carriage. They were checked up near Sandusky street. Fortunately no person was in the carriage at the time, the horses having started in the temporary absence of the driver. It was said they were owned by Messrs. Spenceer & Co., livery stable keepers on Ohio street.

New Livery, Sale and Commission Stables—Where to Hire your Teams, and Where to Board your Horses.

Under the name and style of Robt. H. Patterson & Co., Messrs, John H. Stewart, ex-Sheriff, and R. H. Patterson have entered into partnership for carrying on the general livery and sales stable business, at the corner of Seventh avenue and Liberty street. For more than a third of a century the senior partner of the firm has been identified with the business, and from his long experience has acquired a thorough knowledge in horse matters, and those trusting their stock to his care can rest assured that their interests will not suffer. Col. Stewart is universally known as a clever, accommodating and courteous gentleman, with whom it is a pleasure to have business dealings. He can "talk horse" and manage as cleverly as the best in the business, and as he will give his undivided attention to the stables the firm of R. H. Patterson & Co., must rapidly advance in popular favor and patronage.

The stable is large, airy and commodious, and is now undergoing such repairs and improvements as will make it the most inviting, convenient and healthy in the city. It has approaches, one from Seventh avenue and the other from Strawberry alley. The lot upon which it stands is two hundred and fifty feet deep, extending through from Seventh avenue to the alley, and in the centre is a large yard where it is proposed to hold sales every Saturday, which will, no doubt, prove a great accommodation to both buyers and sellers. Sales of this character are held weekly in all the more prominent cities of the Union, and we feel satisfied that they will prove at once successful and popular here. The carriage house of the concern is well worth a visit, if only to see the beautiful vehicles with which it is crowded. It must be borne in mind that everything connected with this stable is new, horses, carriages, buggies, wagons, harness, etc., and further, that no expense has been spared to secure the best stock in the market. Their carriages were purchased from the best Eastern makers, and for richness, comfort and extreme beauty of appearance cannot be surpassed. They are gold mounted, and from the expensive manner in which they are finished, remind one of the famous State equipages which make such a display in the royal processions so common at the other side of the Atlantic. They are perfect palaces on wheels, and are so arranged as to secure the amplest ventilation. One especially, a perfect chariot, can be converted from an elegant closed carriage to an open and luxurious phaeton in an instant. Nearly one hundred head of fresh horses, including such noble animals as "Sherman," are kept for hire, and any of our friends desiring a neat rig with horses to suit their tastes, quiet or spirited, fast or ordinary, will do well to furnish the new firm with a call. In addition to the ordinary stalls, the firm are fixing up a number of roomy box stalls for the accommodation of valuable horses which may be sent there either on livery or to be disposed of. These will be found very convenient, and the owners of fast and valuable horses will not be slow to appreciate their advantage over the common stalls. The firm are now ready for business, and in the beautiful sentiment of Rip Van Winkle, we say, "May they live long and prosper."

Benevolent Enterprise.

Elder Daniel Wadkins, an intelligent colored gentleman, duly accredited agent of the Tennessee Manual Labor School—distant from Nashville some twenty-five miles—is now in this city soliciting aid to complete the payment for three hundred acres of land, and for the necessary school buildings, the whole sum required being $20,000.

This institution is incorporated by the Legislature of Tennessee, is located in a populous district where it is greatly needed, and its benefits are restricted to no class, creed or color. The project has the countenance of all classes, and we hope our own citizens, notwithstanding the many demands made from day to day upon their charity, will make room for this appeal in behalf of a people not able to help themselves. Help the poor and the needy, the Lord will repay.

An Impudent Thief.

Jacob Hart was arrested in Birmingham, yesterday, on a charge of larceny. It is alleged that Hart went into a boarding house in said borough and entered the room of one of the boarders, locked the door, and after appropriating two shirts, which he put on, laid down and went to sleep. When the boarder came to his room he found the door locked and the occupant refused to let him in. At the instance of the landlady he bursted open the door and found the intruder lying in the bed with two of his shirts on, which he refused to take off, and also refused to leave the room. An officer was sent for and Hart was taken before Justice Salusbury who committed him to jail on a charge of larceny.

"The Greatest Discovery Yet!"

This is the caption of an advertisement for a "Patent Egg Preserver," which read in an another column. If it is what it is represented, and from our knowledge of the high character of the advertisers, we have no doubt every one should at once avail themselves of its benefits.

We have seen eggs kept by the process since last June as perfect as the day they were laid. It has already met with a large sale and renders universal satisfaction. If testimonials will inspire confidence, there are enough of them and from persons of the highest respectability. A sample of eggs may be seen at No. 56 Smithfield street.

Accidents by Lightning.

During a heavy thunder storm at Monroe, Conn., three children, Frank K. Hawley, aged thirteen, David M. Sherman, aged ten, and Charles B. Babbet, aged six years, while standing on a school house porch, were instantly killed by lightning, and a little girl named Hubbel was severely stunned, but has recovered. The school house was badly damaged.

School Directors and Trustees of Public Institutions should apply to Lockhart & Co., 234 Penn street, and have their celebrated Munson Copper Lightning Rod put on their buildings without delay.

W. W. Moorhead, 81 Market street, would invite the attention of all his customers and the public, to the closing out at private sale all the goods yet remaining unsold. Great bargains can be secured next week in Embroideries, Laces and fancy goods. 6

The Place to get Queensware.—Beggs & McGraw are selling goods twenty-five per cent cheaper than any house in either city. Please call and examine for yourselves, at No. 10 Diamond, Allegheny. 2.

Standard Principles.

There should be standard principles in medicine as well as philosophy.

Without a "zero" to start from, or a "standard" from which to calculate the deviations, the principle and practice of medicine, in fact the principles of any art or science, cannot be satisfactorily elucidated or properly understood.

The art and science of medicine is divided into several special departments, each having their standard principles, which form the basis for their scientific elucidations.

Every particular part of the human body has had its average natural properties, constituents, quantities, &c., reduced upon scientific principles to a standard of nearly definite proportions in health.

This serves for the more correct elucidation of disease by comparison and measurement of the deviations from the healthy standard. Thus the average proportionate constituents of the blood in health being reduced to a standard, any considerable deviation from this standard quality of the blood is diseases

The same in the urinary excretion; the average natural proportionate constituents of the urine in health form the standard, any considerable deviation from which basis, either in proportion or constituents, exhibits disease.

This latter is a practical fact which we are daily demonstrating at our office, No. 132 Grant street, and which any one can have tested to their entire satisfaction, by sending a standard specimen (morning urine) for scientific analysis and examination.

If we fail to detect the "morbid conditions," if any; or to determine the nature of the disease, or the organs affected, as the lungs, liver, stomach, brain, kidneys, womb, &c., there shall be no charge made.

Be sure to give the age of the patient at the same time, as the urine varies in proportionate constituents in the different ages of infancy, childhood, manhood and old age.

The name and residence of each patient should be given also, in order to avoid confusion of cases where medicines are taken.

L. OLDSHUE, M. D.

The Age of Progress.

That there is an age of progress, is a self-evident fact, undeniable and uncontroverted. It is apparent in every branch of art, science and trade, and in no particular branch of industry is the fact more strongly brought to our notice than in the manufacture of Queensware. If any of our readers should question this assertion, we would refer them to the establishment of S. M. Kier & Co, No. 363 Liberty street, manufacturers of Queensware and pottery, where will be found one of the largest assortments of Queensware in the city, and of a quality equal to the best European manufacturers. This excellent ware is all manufactured at the Keystone Pottery in this city, and is sold at prices far below those asked for eastern ware of the same quality.

Segars and Tobacco.

Mr. Jno. Megraw, No. 45 Hand street, has on hand and for sale a large and superior stock of tobacco and segars of the very best brands. The reputation of this well known establishment, and Mr. Megraw's long experience in business, are sufficient guarantee to the public that any article purchased at his store will be in strict accordance with what it is represented to be. We therefore take pleasure in recommending such business houses to the favorable notice of our many readers, fully knowing whereof we speak. Superior inducements to retail dealers are presented by Mr. Megraw, and they will find it to their advantage to give him a call.

Book! Books!

The Book and Stationery Store of Col. J. D. Egan on sixth avenue, near Smithfield street, contains one of the largest and best selected stocks of Books and Stationery to be found in the city. He has also on hand a large stock of second hand books, containing many ancient and valuable works, which will be sold cheap for cash, and he pays the highest cash price for second hand books. On his counter will be found all the latest Literary Publications, Perodicals and Magazines.

At the popular "Corner Dry Goods Store" of Richard Deakers, Fifth avenue and Grant street, will be found a splendid stock of carpets at very popular prices, such as might have been considered cheap previous to the war. The stock is large and the selection fine, and we urge our lady readers to visit the carpet room of the Corner Dry Goods Store before purchasing elsewhere. An admirable stock of dry goods has also just been received and offered at the usually reasonable prices which have long made the house popular.

Holtzheimer, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Continental Dining Rooms, serves his patrons at all times with the earliest and freshest vegetables, and the first game in season that can be obtained in the market, and everything in his establishment is served in a style to challenge competition. The Continental is one door west of the Postoffice, on Fifth avenue.

Moorehead's, No. 81 Market street, is the place to purchase lace goods and trimmings, if you want the latest styles and a good article at reasonable prices. Moorehead purchases his goods from first hands, and is thereby enabled to sell on more reasonable terms than those who patronize the jobbing houses.

The Continental Dining Saloon, Fifth Avenue, next door to the Post office, is Mr. Holtzheimer's dining saloon and a more comfortable and better appointed establishment at which to dine cannot be found in the city.

Unabated.—The excitement among the ladies in consequence of the immense stock of trimmings and lace goods, hosiery and gloves, at W. W. Moorhead's, No 81 Market street, has not abated in the least, and we presume will not as long as Mr. M. continues to receive such elegant goods and sell them so rapidly as he is now doing.

Dissolution.

The partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Wm. G. Harvison retiring. All accounts of the late firm will be settled by R. H. Long & Co., at the old stand, 116 Market street.

MAJOR R. H. LONG,
WM. G. HARVISON.

COPARTNERSHIP.

The undersigned have this day entered into a copartnership, under the firm name of R. H. Long & Co., for the vending of Weed Sewing Machines, at No. 116 Market street.

R. H. LONG,
JOHN BIGGERT.

Having disposed of my interest in the firm of Long & Harvison, to Capt. John Biggert, I cordially recommend the new firm to my friends, the patrons of the old firm, and to the public generally.

WM. G. HARVISON.

April 22, 1869.

HOW TO PAY FOR IT.

Many persons entertain the idea that it is a difficult matter to pay for a Weed Sewing Machine. Such is not the fact, however, as any one can be convinced if they will call at the agency, No. 116 Market street. Thirty-three cents a day is all that is necessary, and that amount can be economized by every lady. For instance, the saving of the money expended by the male members of the family for tobacco would soon foot up the amount needed; or the cutting of luxuries or unnecessary articles entering into household expenditures, would soon accomplish this desirable object. No matter how straightened the circumstances of a family, there are always some extra expenses which may be curtailed, and the money thus saved may be expended for a sewing machine. Such an investment would at once become a source of revenue, and the necessity of enduring privations would be removed. As an illustration of the difference between hand sewing and sewing on a Weed Machine, we will give a few figures,

Making pair of pants per day by hand	$ 37½
Making two pair on Weed Machine	75
One shirt per day by hand	1 25
Two Shirts by Weed Machine	2 50

This is only a sample of the benefits of a Weed machine. Others could be given, but we recommend our readers to call on the agents, Messrs. R. H. Long & Co., 116 Market street.

Housekeepers, Attention.—The miseries of having poor, unhealthy bread, cakes and pastries are at an end. No more troubles in the kitchen. Use Dooley's Chemical Yeast Baking Powder, which is the only article of the kind that possesses the peculiar quality of producing good bread or pastry every time. This is owing to the care taken in its manufacture to use only strictly healthy ingredients, and with scrupulous exactness in each lot. For sale by grocers generally. Ask for Dooley's Baking Powder, and you will be satisfied with no other. MWF

Chapped Hands, face and all roughness of the skin, certainly cured by using the Juniper Tar Soap, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. It surpasses all other remedies as it will prevent roughness of the skin if used during cold weather. It is easily applied, avoiding all the trouble of the greasy compounds now in use. It can be used by ladies with the most tender skin, without irritation or pain, making it soft and clear. Sold by the druggists generally. wT
